Agena Orbit Fails, Gemini Postponed

Cars Pile Up In East End

Crews Clear Railway Wreckage

Reopening of the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks was expected to be completed today after crews relaid the tracks following this wreck late Saturday night in which 12 cars of a westbound train derailed in the East End.

A railroad spokesman said the crews were to complete work on one track yesterday and finish up the job today after clearing the right-of-way of the wrecked cars, broken and twisted rails and some of the freight, including baled scrap, sacks of dog food and dolomite.

The train was en route from Conway to Mingo Junction and moving at 35 miles an hour when some of the cars toward the center of the train derailed just east of the Patterson Industries, Inc., plant.

The cause of the wreck still is under investigation, the spokesman said. It was timed at 11:15.

A wreck train arrived from the Conway yards at 1:15 a. m. yesterday and one from Mingo about 2 a. m. and work began on reopening the chief freight lines. Two siding switches also were torn as the cars careened off the westbound tracks, the spokesman said.

The rear end of the train was towed back to Midland and the front section was sent to Wellsville.

The wrecked cars included six cars of baled scrap, a car of dog food, a car of dolomite, two cars of waste paper and an empty.

There were no personal injuries, the spokesman said. The crew included K. F. Manning and J. E. Tush Jr., enginemen; S. B. Tolson, conductor; C. W. Weekley, brakeman, and R. N. Mays. The spokesman said all were from the Wellsville vicinity.

The parked autos of two railroad officials received minor damage when struck by a sightseeing motorist early Sunday near the scene of the train wreck.

Anderson Fulks, 47, of 438 1st St. told police he was looking at the wreckage while driving in a field just east of the Patterson plant when he scraped the parked cars.

The autos included a station wagon leased by W. B. Garner of Pittsburgh and another 'wagon' owned by D. M. Geist and Una Geist of Rochester. There was no damage to Fulks' 1957 sedan and only minor damage to the left doors of the other two vehicles, police said.

Space Launch Unsuccessful

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The Gemini 6 mission of astronauts Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford was postponed indefinitely today when the Agena spacecraft—their rendezvous and docking target — failed to achieve orbit.

Ground controllers lost telemetry signals from the Agena seconds before it was scheduled to reach orbit and for long, anxious minutes they awaited word on its fate from the worldwide tracking network.

Then it came—the Agena had failed in its mission, part of the ambitious, extremely complex program to catch and link up with an object in space.

When the Atlas lifted off, Schirra and Stafford were in their cramped spacecraft atop a Titan 2 rocket on a pad 6,000 feet away. They watched the blastoff of their intended target satellite on a television monitor mounted in front of their spacecraft window.

The countdown on the Titan 2 continued as tracking stations attempted to determine what happened to the Agena. Scheduled liftoff for the astronauts was 11:41 a.m.

Schirra and Stafford were to chase the Agena across the skies in man's first attempt to catch and link up with an orbiting satellite.

However, if Agena was not in orbit, officials said they would not go ahead with the launching of the Gemini spacecraft The main goal of the flight was the rendezvous and docking mission.

Perhaps the most anxious period of the whole complicated process opened at 5:35 a.m. (EST) when the Gemini 6 spacecraft was cut into the consolidated terminal countdown on the whole array of devices that have to work together in a dual launching and flight.

Gemini 6 is the vehicle astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr., aided by Thomas P. Stafford, is to fly all over the sky to pinpoint contact and lockup with a previously orbited Agena rocket 185 miles up.

The flight is a field trial for maneuvers that must be perfected if man is to get back when he flies to the moon a few years from now.

The Agena, powered by an Atlas rocket, was scheduled for lift-off at 10 a.m. (EST).

Then at 11:41, in the Gemini capsule propelled by a Titan 2 booster, the two astronauts set out on their celestial hare-and-hounds chase of more than 100,000 miles.

The various countdowns, which have been going on for days on a preliminary basis, were consolidated into the terminal phase at 12:15 a.m.

At the cape the weather overhead was clear except for a few small, scattered clouds.

But seaward there was a cloudbank, and there was a report of a weather problem developing farther to the east. Some heavy showers were reported in an area running from eastern Cuba to west of Bermuda.

Such a development might necessitate a recheck with weathermen after the Agena's orbit has been established to determine the best landing area for the astronauts.

"We're well rested and ready for the flight," commented Navy Capt. Schirra, America's oldest astronaut at 42. He is a veteran of a nine-hour flight in the Mercury program.

"We're looking forward to it with great expectations," added Stafford, 35, an Air Force major making his first venture into space.

The signal to begin the unique dual countdown was given Sunday night after weather, spacecraft, rockets, tracking systems and pilots were pronounced ready to go.

The Atlas was to propel the 26-foot Agena into a circular orbit 185 miles high. Schirra and Stafford were to settle into an elliptical path ranging from 100 to 168 miles. Through a series of bit-shifting maneuvers, they were to catch up gradually with the Agena, which will have a 1,200-mile head start.

Given a perfect flight, Gemini 6 will pursue the Agena over a 103,000-mile course, moving close to it during the fourth orbit.

The joining and clamping together of the two vehicles was slated for about six hours after the Gemini launching, high above the Pacific Ocean near Hawaii.

If successful, it will be the first time two objects have been brought together in space and will put the United States over a

President Still Has Pain

Johnson Tries Hand At Boating As Texas Recuperation Begins

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is circulating in public once more and even doing some speedboating while settling down for an extended recuperation at his ranch home.

Johnson, who flew to the ranch Saturday for a stay of several weeks, made his first public appearance Sunday since his Oct. 8 operation.

With Mrs. Johnson, he attended Communion services at the First Christian Church here and heard Pastor Ray Akin, a lay minister, thank God "for our leader's rapid recovery."

Johnson, who freely concedes it will be some time before he feels fully up to par, later displayed some of his old zip as he whipped his 18-foot speedboat through some tight circling maneuvers on Lake Lyndon B. Johnson, north of the ranch.

The President walked gingerly, however, as he approached the boathouse for his aquatic outing. In church he eased himself up and down because of continuing pain from the incision made for his operation.

As he told reporters at an informal news conference aboard his plane during the flight to Texas: "I hurt good — if you know what I mean."

Johnson, who said, "I feel sometimes like I have a baseball right here in my right side," vowed he would "stay every minute I can" at the ranch during the next couple of months. However, there may be occasional trips back to Washington.

Because of the President's baseball allusion, most newsmen and photographers who watched his speedboating were surprised. They had thought he would confine himself to cabin cruiser jaunts for a few weeks, because speedboats can deal out a stiff jolt in choppy water. The water was choppy under a steady breeze.

While Johnson relaxed, associates talked freely about the President's reaction to the 1965 Congressional session and his anticipation of next year's session.

They said he tells them he will push hard, come January, for enactment of 23 major administration bills sidetracked this year. These range from repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act — permitting states to outlaw union shops — to home rule for the District of Columbia.

In Johnson's view, say those who have talked to him, the 1965 Congressional session outstripped in accomplishment any other in this century.

Top Leaders Vow Resurgence Move For Masked Order

Crosses blazed in Southern states this weekend as Ku Klux Klan members preached segregation and promised to continue the resurgence of the hooded order.

In Madisonville, Tex., where about 1,300 persons — half of them in Klan robes — met in an open field Saturday night, a Klan leader urged a demonstration in Austin next Saturday to counteract anti-Viet Nam protests.

Royce McPhail of Crockett, Tex., the principal speaker at the rally, where a 25-foot cross was burned, said the state's Klan members would stage the demonstration in support of U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

A Klan rally in Tampa, Fla., Saturday night was marked by the burning of a 50-foot cross as about 250 men in robes and 1,000 other spectators gathered. A speaker identified as the Rev. A. S. Maple of Georgia told the crowd, "God was the first segregationist to walk this earth."

An unidentified woman speaking at the Tampa rally said members who act as informants in any probe into the order "are not true Klansmen."

Planes Rip Reds Encircling Viet Camp Defenders

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The defenders of Plei Me sent out combat patrols today while the Viet Cong continued to rain mortar shells and machine-gun fire into the besieged camp for the seventh day.

Vietnamese army sources estimated that 153 Communist guerrillas had been killed by air strikes around the Special Forces camp 210 miles northeast of Saigon and another 100 had been slain in ground action.

A U.S. officer who went out on patrol from Plei Me said he counted 100 Viet Cong bodies. He said some had been chained to their automatic weapons.

A relief column consisting of a government regiment with a spearhead of armor had advanced to within about four miles of the camp by night after beating off an ambush and killing an estimated 250 guerrillas at Plei Ya Dran, a village on the way. Government casualties were reported light.

One informed U.S. source in Pleiku said the major fighting appeared to be over, even though the Viet Cong maintained their positions around the camp.

A U.S. medical helicopter braved the ring of enemy machine guns around the post to bring out a wounded American and four wounded Vietnamese. U.S. spokesmen said casualties continued light among the garrison of 300 Montagnard tribesmen and 10 to 12 U.S. advisers.

Advance elements of Vietnamese rangers were airlifted Saturday to take up a position flanking an estimated 600 guerrillas believed massing for an ambush.

Prime Minister Set To Block Colony's Independence Bid

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — A heavy police guard stood by for British Prime Minister Harold Wilson's arrival today in Rhodesia on his mission to prevent the African colony's white rulers from seizing independence.

Police expected a rash of Negro demonstrations. They threw up tight security precautions at Salisbury Airport, where thousands were expected for the arrival of Wilson and Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley after an overnight stop at Cyprus.

There were reports some police units had dogs and tear gas.

Police patrols were beefed up in the city's Negro townships. Four Africans were arrested Sunday for waving antigovernment banners.

Smith has demanded immediate independence from Britain for the colony to preserve white rule. Wilson, under heavy Commonwealth and United Nations pressure, insists on safeguards to insure the black majority power eventually.

Wilson has indicated he intends to have interviews also with African nationalist leaders Joshua Nkomo and Ndabangingi Sithole, and other spokesmen for various groups. Nkomo and Sithole are confined in government restriction camps.

Sithole Sunday predicted violence and bloodshed if Smith declares independence.

Smith said the main theme of this week's meetings with Wilson would be Smith's offer of a treaty guaranteeing not to turn his back on the constitutional principles providing for the advancement of Rhodesia's four million Africans. Rhodesia's white population numbers about 250,000.

Nobel Peace Prize Given To UNICEF

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Nobel peace prize has been awarded to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, the Nobel committee announced today.

The award was made by the five-member committee of the Norwegian Parliament. The prize consists of a gold medal and a cash award of 282,000 Swedish kroner ($51,788).

Since the prize was first awarded in 1901 it has been given to 52 persons and eight institutions.

UNICEF was founded by unanimous decision of the United Nations General Assembly on Dec. 11, 1946.

Civic Leader Many Years

Services Slated Tuesday For William B. Cooper, 55

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church for William Brookes Cooper of Forsyth Pl., an insurance company executive and an East Liverpool civic leader for many years, who died suddenly Saturday at 6 p. m. at City Hospital. He was 55.

Mr. Cooper's heart failed during surgery for removal of the appendix. He was revived, but only briefly, with open heart surgery.

Mr. Cooper was president of the Cooper Insurance Agency in the Little Building, founded by his father, the late Lee C. Cooper. Except for time out to attend college and serve in World War II, he had been associated with the agency since 1928.

Mr. Cooper was a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. He had served on the Board of Trustees of the YMCA and the Red Cross, and had headed the Red Cross fund campaign. He also had served as chairman of the East Liverpool Area Community Fund Campaign, now the United Fund. He was a member of the United Fund Board of Trustees and Executive Committee.

Arch Moore Slates Tour Of Viet Nam

Rep. Arch Moore of West Virginia's First Congressional District said today he will make a tour of Viet Nam in November for a first - hand look at the military and political situation.

"I want to see for myself just what actually is going on," the congressman said. "I want to talk with American soldiers, particularly those from West Virginia, to find out about their morale."

Moore said he also intends to check the worthiness of military equipment issued to American GI's. He also will meet with military and diplomatic officials in the 20,000-mile round trip.

He will stay in Viet Nam about a week, leaving Washington on Nov. 11. He is making the trip under authority of a resolution adopted by the House of Representatives.

The congressman has been critical of free-world allies who are trading with North Viet Nam. He recently introduced a bill aimed at curbing this trade between the Communists and the free-world allies.

"Personally, I am anxious to

Hilltop Inn Owner Released On Bond

Hancock County sheriff's deputies staged the second raid within a week early Sunday morning when they entered the Hilltop Inn at the crest of the Route 30 hill east of Chester and arrested the operator and a customer on alleged beer violations.

Charles Pittenger, 48, of Chester, licensee of the establishment, was released after posting $112 appearance bond with Squire Harry Lytton of Newell on a charge of dispensing beer after hours.

Howard Mitchell, 27, of East Liverpool posted $50 bond with the squire after being charged with consuming beer after hours.

The two are scheduled to appear before Squire Lytton Thursday night.

The action followed an earlier operation Thursday night at the Win, Place and Show night club conducted jointly by the sheriff's department and West Virginia State Police.

Passenger Hurt In Auto Collision

A Glenmoor man was hospitalized and two others were injured in an auto accident Saturday at 8 p. m. on the Y. & O. Rd. a tenth of a mile south of the junction with Route 30.

The crash involved a foreign compact car operated by Gary Michael McKinney, 21, of Wellsville R. D. 1 and a 1959 coach operated by Charles W. Wolf, 801 Louise St.

Milton Crane Jr. of Annesly Rd., a passenger in the McKinney car, was admitted to City Hospital with a severe head injury, possible fractured nose and possible chest injuries. He was in "fair" condition today.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Wolf, 37, made a turn into the path of the northbound McKinney vehicle. The front end of each car was demolished.

Wolfe was treated for contusions of the ribs and McKinney suffered contusions of the chest.

Agena Orbit Fails, Gemini Postponed

Crews Clear Railway Wreckage

Reopening of the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks was expected to be completed today after crews relaid the tracks following this wreck late Saturday night in which 12 cars of a westbound train derailed in the East End.

A railroad spokesman said the crews were to complete work on one track yesterday and finish up the job today after clearing the right-of-way of the wrecked cars, broken and twisted rails and some of the freight, including baled scrap, sacks of dog food and dolomite.

The train was en route from Conway to Mingo Junction and moving at 35 miles an hour when some of the cars toward the center of the train derailed just east of the Patterson Industries, Inc., plant.

The cause of the wreck still is under investigation, the spokesman said. It was timed at 11:15.

A wreck train arrived from the Conway yards at 1:15 a. m. yesterday and one from Mingo about 2 a. m. and work began on reopening the chief freight lines. Two siding switches also were torn as the cars careened off the westbound tracks, the spokesman said.

The rear end of the train was towed back to Midland and the front section was sent to Wellsville.

The wrecked cars included six cars of baled scrap, a car of dog food, a car of dolomite, two cars of waste paper and an empty.

There were no personal injuries, the spokesman said. The crew included K. F. Manning and J. E. Tush Jr., enginemen; S. B. Tolson, conductor; C. W. Weekley, brakeman, and R. N. Mays. The spokesman said all were from the Wellsville vicinity.

The parked autos of two railroad officials received minor damage when struck by a sightseeing motorist early Sunday near the scene of the train wreck.

Anderson Fulks, 47, of 438 1st St. told police he was looking at the wreckage while driving in a field just east of the Patterson plant when he scraped the parked cars.

The autos included a station wagon leased by W. B. Garner of Pittsburgh and another 'wagon' owned by D. M. Geist and Una Geist of Rochester. There was no damage to Fulks' 1957 sedan and only minor damage to the left doors of the other two vehicles, police said.

A CAR driven by James Andrew Palatinus, 23, of Petersburg R. D. 1 hit the rear of a pickup truck driven by Clark Z. Chamberlain, 65, of New Waterford R. D. 1 Saturday at 7 p. m. on Route 517 a half mile south of Route 558. Officers said Chamberlain pulled from a private driveway and Palatinus was unable to halt on the wet pavement.

Chamberlain was taken to Salem City Hospital by relatives for treatment for possible internal injuries. Palatinus suffered a laceration of the lower lip and had several teeth loosened.

Abraham Jackson Thomas, 20, of 140½ W. Martin St., East Palestine, escaped injury in a

Nobel Peace Prize Given To UNICEF

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Nobel peace prize has been awarded to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, the Nobel committee announced today.

The award was made by the five-member committee of the Norwegian Parliament. The prize consists of a gold medal and a cash award of 282,000 Swedish kroner ($51,788).

Since the prize was first awarded in 1901 it has been given to 52 persons and eight institutions.

Cannon Cracks Safe, Over $450,000 Gone

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — A cannon was used to blow open the vault inside the Brink's Co. branch office here and nearly half a million dollars was reported missing today.

The manager of the office discovered the money missing when he reported to work.

Civic Leader Many Years

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church for William Brookes Cooper of Forsyth Pl., an insurance company executive and an East Liverpool civic leader for many years, who died suddenly Saturday at 6 p. m. at City Hospital. He was 55.

Mr. Cooper's heart failed during surgery for removal of the appendix. He was revived, but only briefly, with open heart surgery.

Mr. Cooper was president of the Cooper Insurance Agency in the Little Building, founded by his father, the late Lee C. Cooper. Except for time out to attend college and serve in World War II, he had been associated with the agency since 1928.

Mr. Cooper was a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. He had served on the Board of Trustees of the YMCA and the Red Cross, and had headed the Red Cross fund campaign. He also had served as chairman of the East Liverpool Area Community Fund Campaign, now the United Fund. He was a member of the United Fund Board of Trustees and Executive Committee.

Arch Moore Slates Tour Of Viet Nam

Rep. Arch Moore of West Virginia's First Congressional District said today he will make a tour of Viet Nam in November for a first - hand look at the military and political situation.

"I want to see for myself just what actually is going on," the congressman said. "I want to talk with American soldiers, particularly those from West Virginia, to find out about their morale."

Moore said he also intends to check the worthiness of military equipment issued to American GI's. He also will meet with military and diplomatic officials in the 20,000-mile round trip.

He will stay in Viet Nam about a week, leaving Washington on Nov. 11. He is making the trip under authority of a resolution adopted by the House of Representatives.

The congressman has been critical of free-world allies who are trading with North Viet Nam. He recently introduced a bill aimed at curbing this trade between the Communists and the free-world allies.

"Personally, I am anxious to

Hilltop Inn Owner Released On Bond

Hancock County sheriff's deputies staged the second raid within a week early Sunday morning when they entered the Hilltop Inn at the crest of the Route 30 hill east of Chester and arrested the operator and a customer on alleged beer violations.

Charles Pittenger, 48, of Chester, licensee of the establishment, was released after posting $112 appearance bond with Squire Harry Lytton of Newell on a charge of dispensing beer after hours.

Howard Mitchell, 27, of East Liverpool posted $50 bond with the squire after being charged with consuming beer after hours.

The two are scheduled to appear before Squire Lytton Thursday night.

The action followed an earlier operation Thursday night at the Win, Place and Show night club conducted jointly by the sheriff's department and West Virginia State Police.

12 Sunday Sale Cases Drafted In City Court

Affidavits were being prepared today in Municipal Court against 12 city merchants accusing them on violating Ohio's "blue law" by selling merchandise on Sunday.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said the affidavits were being prepared for the signature of a Hill's Department Store official, who was expected to sign the charges sometime today.

The charges were drawn up chiefly against drug and grocery stores, the judge said, but the names of the businesses will not be revealed until the affidavits have been signed.

Sleet And Snow Mark Area Winter Preview

Sleet mixed with snow fell briefly in the Tri - State District Sunday afternoon, a preview of winter weather to come.

The sleet and snow arrived as part of frequent weekend precipitation marked by several rain storms. The high today will be 45-55. The weatherman said it will be windy and a little warmer tonight, with a possibility of scattered showers or snow flurries in Eastern Ohio.

The low tonight will be 33-36. Tuesday will be clear and cooler. The mercury hit 31 at 6 a.m. today in the downtown area.

Like Play Minus Stars, Bishop Says Of Council

By BISHOP MUSSIO

This session of the Council is like a play without stars. There are no outstanding leaders as at previous sessions because most of the controversial matters have been settled and made law.

Perhaps the star performer of this session is the little black pencil used to mark ballots. It is always in use, deciding matters with breathtaking rapidity. This is a voting session rather than a talking one.

The speeches occur only when voting is not scheduled. Now and then someone says something that catches the attention of the bishops. In most cases it is not something that is going to change the thinking or voting trend of this session. Some of the oratory embellishes what is already in the particular schema. Few, if any, add anything that might sharpen what is written in the schema.

SOME OF these schemas need sharper teeth. I believe the schema on the Church in the Modern World is going to be a disappointment.

It has been prepared too hastily, whereas the problems it meets are those that need much reflection and deep thought. It reads nicely; it reviews many of the doctrines of the Church; it narrates the many world problems of today. But when it comes to practical, hard decisions and solutions it offers vague and general answers.

The chapters on economic and social matters lacks a strong outline of the faults of capitalism and the dangers of extreme socialism. Personally, I would be pleased if the entire schema were sent back to the commission for further study and practical application. To tackle all the problems in the world today and find answers is not a job that can be done quickly.

I mentioned that this is not a session of stars. Fr. Pedro Arrupe, S.J., Superior of the Society of Jesus, shined brightly in one session.

He is neither a recluse nor a bureaucrat. His life has been entwined with the trials, torments, troubles and distresses of nations and peoples. He knew more about what he speaks of than most of his crticis. The immediacy of the criticism of his talk is proof enough for me that his words were not studied and analysed.

WHAT HE said about atheism is a fact. Atheism is a reaction to the church's failure to answer modern man's perplexity, problems and needs. An atheist is disillusioned with the church. They may say there is no God, but I believe they say this because they can't find Him.

The shock should be not over what Fr. Arrupe said but that we have slowed our pace in the past so that this could come about.

The Council must reach men everywhere with Christ's message, in words that men can understand, offering remedies that can cure modern ills. The Council must understand today's man in his own environment with its pressures and changes, the influences on his thoughts and living.

Fr. Arrupe touched the determination of every man in that Council hall to get things done; to renew the confidence of people in God's law as the answer to their personal and social problems.

This confidence will be given by tackling poverty, injustice, hates and world ills with a love and sacrifice that speaks louder than words. This is some of what Fr. Arrupe said. Who can criticize this?

India, China Hassle Over Summit Talks

ALGIERS (AP) — India and Red China clashed violently Sunday night at a meeting of the preparatory committee for the Afro-Asian summit conference, diplomatic sources reported.

Red China has demanded the indefinite postponement of the conference, due to open Nov. 5. India has led the opposition to the Chinese demand.

Chinese Ambassador Tseng Tao told the 15-nation committee that Indian intrigues were dividing the Afro-Asian world, the sources said.

Tseng accused India of plotting to bring the Soviet Union into the conference against the wish of the "anti-imperialist camp." He also said India had helped to create an atmosphere unsuitable to an Afro-Asian solidarity conference by "aggressive acts" against Red China and Pakistan.

Tseng also complained that the Algerian government had invited U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to the summit meeting without consulting the preparatory committee.

Indian Ambassador R. Gobhurdun told Tseng "It ill becomes a country guilty of naked aggression against India to come here and preach Afro-Asian solidarity."

Informants said he warned Tseng that if he continued his "polemics" in the committee, India would raise the Chinese Communist involvement in the Kashmir conflict and in the short-lived Red uprising in Indonesia.

The meeting adiourned after hearing a report from the Algerian government that a majority of the Afro-Asian nations have declared their readiness to attend the summit.

The committee was expected to leave a final decision to the Afro-Asian foreign ministers' meeting here Thursday.

Town Gives Gift To Sen. Kennedy

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — The residents of a village recently retaken from the Viet Cong gave Sen. Edward M. Kennedy two bundles of wood today in honor of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy.

In Viet Nam wood is a special gift given only on special occasions. The senator carried the bundles for the rest of his visit to Hoa Vang, a village of woodcutters, and then had them put on his plane.

Kennedy's visit to Hoa Vang was part of a whirlwind four-hour tour that also took the Massachusetts Democrat and three other U.S. legislators to two refugee camps and a U.S. Marine field hospital. They are surveying the refugee program.

Children at Hoa Vang presented a Vietnamese flag and a rice basket to Kennedy and each of the other members of his party — Sen. Joseph Tydings, D-Md., and Reps. John C. Culver, D-Iowa, and John V. Tunney, D-Calif.

The rice baskets symbolized the removal of Viet Cong control over the village. This was the first year in five that the villagers were able to harvest their rice without paying tribute to the guerrillas.

Kennedy and his party were greeted at the Phuc Thanh refugee camp by cheers of "Hoan ho" (a Vietnamese welcome) from 700 persons, including about 200 children.

Speaker To Offer Novel Approach To Gas Industry

Unusual women's hats will be used by Miss Carolyn Duell, public relations representative of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., when she reviews the story of the natural gas industry Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex.

The occasion will be the "Knit'n and Show Nite" style show.

The hats decoratively will portray various phases in Ohio Valley's operation.

Miss Duell will be dressed from hat to shoes in a natural gas outfit. Even her "hair," a stylish fashion wig, will be a natural gas product. She will explain the process of turning gas into clothing.

The theme of her talk will be "The Mad Hatter." She will illustrate how homes, business establishments and industries here and connected by a vast system of pipelines from the gas-producing fields in Louisiana and Texas.

Miss Duell was graduated from Julienne High School in Dayton. She received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Dayton and her master's degree in television from Ohio State University.

Pakistan Agrees To Parley About Troop Removals

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan says it is ready to begin discussing withdrawal of Indian and Pakistani troops along their troubled 1,700-mile border. There was no response from India.

President Ayub Khan of Pakistan accepted U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's proposal to send Brazilian Maj. Gen. Syseno Sarmen to Pakistan and India for the talks.

But Ayub cautioned that a cease-fire and withdrawal of troops "would be dealing only with the symptoms and not the disease" — Kashmir.

Thant proposed that Sarmen visit Rawalpindi and New Delhi to arrange for representatives of India and Pakistan to meet at some mutually agreed place to agree on a withdrawal schedule.

Both countries swapped new charges of border violations over the weekend. India claimed 17, Pakistan 7.

Physician Total Declines

Doctors Become Scarce Over Southeastern Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Physicians are becoming scarce in Ohio's Appalachia region—some 28 counties comprising the southeastern third of the state—and the trend appears likely to continue.

This is the conclusion of two Ohio State University sociologists who recently completed a two-month study of the area.

Dr. John B. Mitchell and James Finley said the area currently has a ratio of one physician for every 1,709 persons. In 1960, the ratio was one physician to 1,656 persons.

The study centered on medical doctors and osteopathic physicians in full - time general practice either as a general practitioner or a specialist.

The number of physicians in this group declined from 634 in 1960 to 627 in 1965. In the meantime, the population of the 28 counties rose from 2,119,540 to about 2,153,354.

While medical societies consider the ratio of one physician for every 1,200 persons to be adequate, this average was approached in only four of the counties in the area.

The report showed Gallia County with the highest ratio—one physician to 806 persons. Perry County had the lowest ratio with one physician for every 5,445 persons.

The 11 counties and their ratio of physicians to population are: Athens, 1-1,906; Belmont, 1-1,525; Guernsey, 1-1,335; Ross, 1-1,649; Coshocton, 1-1,409; Scioto, 1-1,280; Tuscarawas, 1 - 1,548; Lawrence, 1-2,902; Washington, 1-1,312; Jefferson, 1-1,676 and Muskingum, 1-1,648.

The researchers' prediction that the doctor supply in the area will continue to decline was based on data showing the age distribution of the doctors now practicing.

During the five - year study period, the number of practicing physicians under age 35 dropped from 69 to 43, while the number over 65 increased from 83 to 106.

The shift in age structure reflects the absence of young physicians moving into the area, they said, and shows that more and more of the doctors who will be going out of practice in the years ahead are not likely to be replaced.

Truck Driver Uninjured In Accident On Norton St.

A milk truck driver escaped injury this morning when his truck overturned on Norton St. after he steered it up an embankment in an attempt to halt it on the grade when the accelerator stuck.

Earl Murray, 53, of 322 2nd St., Wellsville, a driver for the Golden Star Dairy, told police he was descending Norton St. toward Lincoln Ave. when the gas pedal stuck.

He said he pulled up on the bank in an attempt to stop and the truck rolled over. The mishap was timed at 7:38 a. m.

Police today were waiting for another motorist, who apparently drove away from a mishap early Sunday on Washington St., to report to headquarters.

Marjorie Jean Hopper, 821 Orchard Grove Ave., told police the right rear door of her parked auto was stuck by the other motorist who backed from a parking place. The accident occurred at 2:22 a. m. near Diamond Alley.

Mrs. Hopper told police she was standing outside the car and saw the unidentified driver back into her auto. She said she ran out into the street and told the motorist what had happened, but that he only glanced at her and then drove away. She gave police the license number of the auto.

Another North Side motorist told police the undercarriage of his auto was damaged early Sunday on Smithfield St. when his car swerved to the right after striking a water shutoff box and hit a storm sewer.

Harry E. Early, 55, of 1830 Smithfield St. said he was driving on Smithfield St. near Marcus St. at 4:45 a. m. yesterday when the mishap occurred.

Wet pavement was blamed for a mishap at 4:37 p. m. yesterday on W. 8th St. near Jefferson St.

The mishap involved westbound cars operated by Clyde S. Minter, 21, of Cleveland and James A. McCollam, 48, of Wellsville R. D. 1.

Police said Minter and McCollam both had descended Jefferson St. and turned onto W. 8th St. when the accident occurred. McCollam told officers he saw Minter ahead of him and assumed he was going to make a left turn. The Wellsville motorist said he applied his brakes but his car skidded on the wet pavement into the rear of the Minter auto.

Backing autos were involved in two mishaps early Saturday afternoon, police reported.

A crash at 12:02 p. m. at W. 6th St. and Peach Ln. involved a car operated by Robert H. Hughes, 51, of Box 257, who was turning from the alley onto W. 6th St., and a 1954 auto driven by Evelyn B. Thompson, 69, of 418 1st St., Chester, who was backing from the curb. Both motorists said they were moving very slowly.

A similar mishap at 12:22 p. m. at Broadway and E. 5th St. involved a backing car operated by Elaine L. Pezer, 40, of Lisbon R. D. 3 and the stopped auto of Geraldine B. Burton of Irondale.

The Irondale woman said she was halted for the traffic signal when the other woman backed into the right side of her car, causing only minor damage. The Lisbon area woman said she saw the other auto but thought it was in the far lane.

Loot Totals $162 In Entry At Plant

Thieves fled with $162.50 in cash, including $12 collected for the United Fund, after breaking into the Pioneer Pottery Co., 778 Starkey Ln., Friday night or early Saturday, police were notified at 12:45 p. m. Saturday.

Lawrence Howell, 1208 Riverview St., manager, said the thieves entered the locked office and took the money from a steel filing cabinet. The method of entry was not revealed on the police report.

Besides the United Fund contribution, the cash includes $56 from petty cash, $22.50 in candy money, $55 in miscellaneous bills, a $10 roll of dimes and two $1 bills, Howell reported. The theft occurred between 3:55 p.m. Friday and 12:45 p. m. Saturday.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union must perfect the docking technique before committing men to moon voyages.

Command pilot Schirra emphasized the importance when he said: "I think we're stalled on the moon trip if we can't rendezvous and dock."

— If Gemini 6 were 40 seconds late getting off the pad, the link-up with the Agena would be postponed to the fifth orbit. If the delay were more than 100 seconds, it would be put off until orbit No. 6. A 270-second delay would push it off to the 16th orbit Tuesday and automatically make it a two-day mission. There is a possibility the flight would end after one day if everything goes smoothly.

— If the Gemini 6 launching were delayed 25 minutes, the Agena would have to be commanded by a ground signal to move into a more favorable position.

— If Gemini 6 were not launched within five days after the Agena, the misson would be canceled because the Agena battery power would be too low.

— If Schirra and Stafford do not effect rendezvous within 10 minutes after they maneuver to within 1,000 feet of the Agena, they probably would be too far away and too short on fuel to try again.

— If the two vehicles fail to unlatch after being joined, the astronauts would trigger explosive bolts to break the connection. Should this fail, they would have to attempt a dangerous reentry with the 7,000-pound Gemini — 2,000 pounds of it fuel — attached to the Agena.

Schirra and Stafford planned a total of four linkups with the Agena, two by each estronaut.

Gemini program director Charles Mathews said: "The Gemini 6 mission is three times more complex than anything previously completed in the Gemini program. Even with the confidence we have in the rockets and spacecraft, we consider it a difficult mission."

It will be a flight of many "if's."

Among them: If the Agena entered a wide elliptical orbit beyond the correction capability of ground signals, or if it did not achieve orbit, the astronauts would not be launched.

In that event, the Gemini 6 spacecraft would be removed from the rocket and replaced by the Gemini 7 vehicle, which is being readied for a 14-day flight in December. Gemini 6 would be rescheduled in February when another Atlas-Agena can be ready.

After each docking they will back away about 60 feet and then gently nudge the nose of the 18 - foot Gemini craft 20 inches into a collar on the nose of the Agena.

While hooked up, the pilots will perform some maneuvers by firing the Gemini jet thrusters and small jets on the Agena. The tests will provide engineering data on vibrations, bending motions and other mechanics of operating two or more vehicles in space.

On later Gemini flights, the astronauts will fire the powerful Agena engine to make major maneuvers.

At the time of docking, the two vehicles each would be traveling about 17,500 miles an hour. But the relative speed difference when contact is made is to be equivalent to a man taking a step every six seconds.

Emphasizing the importance of the flight, Dr. George Mueller, the space agency's associate administrator for manned space flight, said:

"We demonstrated with the eight-day Gemini 5 flight that man can survive in space long enough to fly to the moon and return. Now we must perfect the techniques and hardware to get him there.

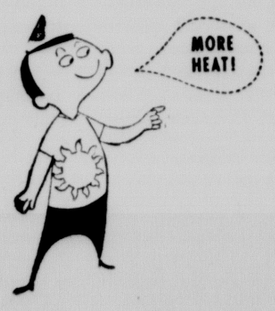

"If we are successful with Gemini 6 it will be a major step toward the moon. We would then only have to demonstrate in the Apollo program that the equipment will work."

Mueller said he would consider the flight successful if only one of the four planned dockings was executed. He said he would also consider it successful if the pilots got close enough to maneuver around the Agena but were unable to dock because of trouble with the target.

On the Apollo manned lunar landing flights, scheduled to start in 1969, three astronauts will ride their spacecraft into orbit about the moon and two will drop to the surface in a small capsule.

Physician Total Declines

Doctors Become Scarce Over Southeastern Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Physicians are becoming scarce in Ohio's Appalachia region—some 28 counties comprising the southeastern third of the state—and the trend appears likely to continue.

This is the conclusion of two Ohio State University sociologists who recently completed a two-month study of the area.

Dr. John B. Mitchell and James Finley said the area currently has a ratio of one physician for every 1,709 persons. In 1960, the ratio was one physician to 1,656 persons.

The study centered on medical doctors and osteopathic physicians in full - time general practice either as a general practitioner or a specialist.

The number of physicians in this group declined from 634 in 1960 to 627 in 1965. In the meantime, the population of the 28 counties rose from 2,119,540 to about 2,153,354.

While medical societies consider the ratio of one physician for every 1,200 persons to be adequate, this average was approached in only four of the counties in the area.

The report showed Gallia County with the highest ratio—one physician to 806 persons. Perry County had the lowest ratio with one physician for every 5,445 persons.

The 11 counties and their ratio of physicians to population are: Athens, 1-1,906; Belmont, 1-1,525; Guernsey, 1-1,335; Ross, 1-1,649; Coshocton, 1-1,409; Scioto, 1-1,280; Tuscarawas, 1 - 1,548; Lawrence, 1-2,902; Washington, 1-1,312; Jefferson, 1-1,676 and Muskingum, 1-1,648.

The researchers' prediction that the doctor supply in the area will continue to decline was based on data showing the age distribution of the doctors now practicing.

During the five - year study period, the number of practicing physicians under age 35 dropped from 69 to 43, while the number over 65 increased from 83 to 106.

The shift in age structure reflects the absence of young physicians moving into the area, they said, and shows that more and more of the doctors who will be going out of practice in the years ahead are not likely to be replaced.

Democrats Have A Secret

U.S. Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, addressing a recent fund-raising dinner in Cleveland, teed off on "Birchers of the left." They have a stronger hold on the Democratic party, he said, than extremists of the right have on the Republican party.

The senator knows, as a former party chairman and a practical politician, that such infiltration—even the allegation of such a thing—can hurt the party grievously at the polls in a presidential election. It hurt in 1964.

But he knows equally well that the accusation of leftist extremism and evidence of leftist influence never hurt the Democratic party in a national election. What makes the difference? Why do Republicans fall out and Democrats fall in?

Even when Franklin D. Roosevelt was accepting help from leftists in places like New York City, he was losing no votes in places where radicalism of the left was anathema. He held the Solid South. He hung on to Democratic moderates in other cities and states from coast to coast.

Through some mysto-magic of political image-making, the Democratic party is able to incorporate radicals of both extremes—from the reactionary Eastlands of the Solid South to the wild men of the disorganized North without losing middle-of-the-road voters.

Its critics and political foes have charged tirelessly that it is dominated by one or the other, but they cannot make the charge stick in the public craw the way the charge of extremism stuck there in the 1964 election when made against the Republicans.

The Democratic party has been so successful in creating an image of composite character that even Lyndon B. Johnson, a political conservative, automatically took on the party coloration of liberalism when he moved into the White House. No one questioned the transition.

Yet, when Dwight D. Eisenhower, assuredly more liberal than conservative by inclination, moved into the White House in 1953 he was catalogued by political opponents as an arch-conservative though many arch-Conservative Republicans looked upon him as an enemy inside the gates; they thought he was too liberal.

Democrats have a secret.

Until Republicans learn how to include all elements of the political spectrum, without worrying about domination by any single element, they will be at a disadvantage in national elections.

Takes Two Kinds

Yale Univerity has lobbed a rocket into the murky academic sky with a plan for letting outstanding students rate instructors.

The plan followed a dismal experience last year when a Yale instructor was passed over for promotion because he had not written enough articles and books, though his students insisted he was a topnotch teacher.

Instead of a rule of "publish or perish," the Yale rule may be transformed into publish-teach or perish.

Practically, the two aptitudes do not always coincide, though a great university needs both. There might be a solution.

The great universities might maintain two categories of faculty personnel — scholars and teachers. They would strive to find people who could be both. But when they found outstanding individuals who could do only one or the other, they would expect them to excel in their specialty.

Teachers who are not great scholars can read scholarly works and learn what the scholars are thinking, which is vastly more than can be done by scholars who are not great teachers.

Teaching is a gift bestowed on the few, scholarship a way of academic life followed by the many.

William Cooper

East Liverpool has lost another of its civic leaders in the shocking death of William B. Cooper.

Bill, with his almost boundless energy, had been a moving force behind innumerable deserving enterprises over the years. He was another of those seldom found wanting when there were tasks to be done that contributed toward a better community. He was a man of positive beliefs. If he felt a project was sound and for the over-all good, he gave it his all, generally with gratifying results.

East Liverpool is the better for Mr. Cooper having been in its midst for so many years. His many contributions to its advancement will be missed and the streets will seem the lonelier without his friendly "hello."

One More Guess

Fidel Castro's apparent willingness to let Cubans depart from Cuba at will has given rise to a guessing game.

What is Big Whiskers up to? What does he have in mind?

There are as many guesses as Castro has had faces since he came on the international scene as a Latin American "liberator" in 1953. Since then, the man has been a fearless revolutionary, an enlightened despot, a tyrant, popular leader, Communist dictator, woolly-minded ideologist, international plotter, Cuban patriot and, most recently, a disenchanted Russian puppet.

But one guess is neglected.

Could it be that in the man's floundering he hit upon the idea that the fewer Cuban mouths he had to feed the better and that every Cuban who fled would leave behind all his worldly goods, which thereupon would become the property of the state?

Granted, it wouldn't make sense in the long run to do such a thing. But what sense has Fidel Castro made since he toppled Fulgencio Batista's despotic government on Jan. 1, 1959.

Goldberg Finds Labor Talks A Help

By Max Harrelson

UNITED NATIONS

Arthur J. Goldberg plunged into the world of diplomacy three months ago with a novel theory that negotiating a cease-fire is not much different from negotiating a labor contract. He didn't have to wait long to test the idea.

As president of the U.N. Security Council, he was a key figure in the talks which led to two unanimous cease - fire resolutions in the India-Pakistan crisis and eventually to the end of the fighting over Kashmir.

Goldberg declines to say whether the Soviet ambassador to the United Nations, Nikolai T. Fedorenko, is as tough an adversary as steel executive Roger Blough, but he believes his experience in labor negotiations definitely helped in the U.N. talks.

This is typical of the approach the former Supreme Court justice and ex-Secretary of Labor brought to the United Nations when he was named by President Johnson July 20 as chief U.S. delegate. Since then he was brushed aside one accepted practice after another and introduced the far-reaching changes.

U.N. DIPLOMATS find little in the personality or operating methods of Goldberg, 57, to remind them of either Henry Cabot Lodge or Adlai E. Stevenson, who headed the U.S. mission during the preceding 12 years.

His action pattern bears out a prediction made by a long - time associate at the time of his appointment: "I would look for a change in the functioning of the ambassador to the U. N. Arthur's a negotiator. Arthur knows more tricks of the trade than anyone I know."

It always has been a part of the U.S. ambassador's job to negotiate, of course, but Lodge and Stevenson were known primarily for their eloquence as public speakers. In the case of Goldberg, there is going to be more emphasis on negotiations.

Goldberg is an adequate speaker — perhaps better than most — but he has acknowledged repeatedly that he does not aspire to match either Stevenson's eloquence or his wit.

Some diplomats have noted a similarity between Goldberg's way of doing things and President Johnson's. One observer pointed out that both Goldberg and Johnson have a chatty style of speech - making and that both are at their best in off-the-cuff remarks.

Others have seen a similarity in their dealing with the press, with the public and with congressional leaders.

And there are signs that Dorothy Goldberg—like Mrs. Johnson—is going to take an active role in public affairs. She already has given several teas and has made it a practice, when possible, to attend her husband's news conferences.

STEVENSON WAS divorced before he came to the United Nations, but Lodge, James J. Wadsworth, Ernest A. Gross and Warren Austin never gave their wives any role except to act as hostesses at social affairs.

Goldberg has spent much more time in Washington consulting with congressional leaders than any of his predecessors.

His intensive talks with key members of Congress were partly responsible for the unexpectedly mild reactions to his announcement last August that the United States had reversed its policy of invoking penalties against the Soviet Union, France and other nations behind in paying U.N. assessments. He agreed immediately after his appointment that the reversal was necessary and decided that his top priority job was to make the decision palatable to Congress and the American public.

Goldberg has carried on an intensive program of trying to win public backing for U.S. policy on Viet Nam and other controversial problems. Since his arrival at U.N. headquarters he has consulted with dozens of groups and individuals, including critics such as Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. His meeting with King brought him under attack from Sen. Strom Thurmond.

Stevenson also had cabinet status, but he was never really close to either John K. Kennedy or Johnson.

Neither Lodge nor Stevenson had the personal relationship with the President that Goldberg has with Johnson. The Goldbergs have been weekend guests at the LBJ ranch in Texas and are included in the intimate White House circle. During the recent late-night consultations on the India - Pakistan fight, Johnson telephoned Goldberg on several occasions.

THIS WOULD seem to indicate that Goldberg might be in a somewhat delicate position in relation to the State Department, but actually Goldberg's relations with Secretary of State Dean Rusk are extremely good, and Rusk was one of his strongest boosters when the President brought up his name for the U.N. job. Those on the inside say that U.S. policy on United States matters is a joint product of Rusk, Goldberg and Johnson.

One of Goldberg's most trying — and most rewarding—experiences came during his month as president of the U.S. Security Council. It was difficult for two reasons: He had attended only a few meetings of the 11-nation body before he was called upon to preside and it happened that the India - Pakistan crisis developed just at the time he took over.

Shortly after he arrived at U. N. headquarters he discovered that it would be his turn to head the council during September. This was the period that he had expected to devote to the opening of the General Assembly and the preparations for the meeting.

"What duties will I have as council president?" he asked one of the career diplomats at the U.S. mission.

But Don't Forget The Cost

The Vietnamese Fear A Takeover

SAIGON

High Vietnamese officers fear an American political take-over in the strategic plateau bordering Laos following the recent arrival of the 15,000 1st Air Calvary Division.

As the Americans dramatically expanded their military power in the strategic highland area, the military contest immediately was set between the division, supported by Vietnamese government forces, and the Communist Viet Cong who use the jungled highlands as military bases and infiltration routes from North Viet Nam.

However, a third para-military force exists—the indigenous Montagnards, who have been trained, equipped and financed by the American Special Forces.

A year ago some of these Montagnard tribesmen mutinied in five military camps against their Vietnamese superiors, massacred 31 Vietnamese and established a dissident political movement called the Unified Front for the Liberation of the Oppressed Race.

VIETNAMESE OFFICIALS threatened to bomb their own tribal troops, and the dissident movement was temporarily quiet until last month, when two Vietnamese Marine Battalions encircled 300 of the armed Montagnard dissidents and forced their surrender. Two of the dissident units, however, evaded encirclement and still are at large.

This year, the name of the dissident movement was changed from the Liberation of the Oppressed Race—a Communist - sounding name —to Struggle for the Oppressed Race.

The question arose whether the Americans would expand their political power as well as military to gain increasing control over the Montagnards.

Vietnamese officials during the past year have charged that the Americans are trying to seize political control of the Montagnards and military command of the highlands, squeezing the Saigon government off the plateau and shrinking the authority of the Vietnamese commanders.

The Montagnards, who for years have hated the Vietnamese, are friendly to the American troops and the French plantation owners and Catholic missionaries, who wield a great deal of French cultural and economic influence over the primitive tribesmen.

THE VIETNAMESE government charges, dating back to last year's rebellion, indicated that the Americans and the French are inciting the movement to increase its demand upon the Vietnamese government, such as appointment of Montagnard commanders for Montagnard irregular units. It also asks the Montagnard province chiefs and wants a high-ranking Montagnard to be included in the Saigon administration.

The Americans, speaking officially, hotly deny this; a few, speaking in private, admit they eventually will take direct control of the Montagnards because the Vietnamese government is unwilling or unable to meet their demands and is forcing the Montagnards into the hands of the Communists.

The Montagnards have been a sore point between the Vietnamese government and American officials since the Americans first proposed training and equipping them in 1962.

President Ngo Dinh Diem refused to allow the arming of the Montagnards, even to fight the Communists coming across the Ho Chi Minh infiltration routes, fearing that one day the Montagnards would rebel against his central government. Eventually he reluctantly allowed the American Special Forces to train them, but kept personal watch on the program and his Vietnamese Special Forces commanders, working with the Americans, reported directly to him.

LESS THAN A YEAR after President Diem's fall and murder in November 1963, the Montagnard rebel movement he feared was already revolting against the new Saigon government. Reliable observers indicate that the introduction of the elite, mobile American division into the highlands is not enough. Without adequate political controls, the American combat division might defeat the Viet Cong hard-core battalions and regiments and then lose the tribal population to the Communists because of dissatisfaction with the Vietnamese government.

In a move to increase its control in the highlands, the U.S. military command in Saigon announced in August the formation of Task Force Alpha, which has since been made a corps headquarters and renamed headquarters, Field Forces. It would command American military operations while the Vietnamese corps commander in the area would command Vietnamese operations.

According to reliable sources, part of the plan also calls for the Vietnamese commander, Brig. Gen. Vinh Loc, to move his headquarters from the highlands to the coastal plains. He has refused to do so, privately charging that the Americans are grabbing control of his area.

THE HIGHLANDS are a famous route for opium smuggling, which has traditionally provided sizable chunks of illegal income for a number of Vietnamese government and military officials. If Vietnamese officials are pushed off the highlands they will lose this source of income.

One Vietnamese government official, speaking privately, admitted the Vietnamese government has taken inadequate steps to satisfy the demands of the Montagnard population, but insisted that the Americans should work through the Saigon government rather than seizing direct political control.

Reliable observers indicate that the short-term interests of the Americans and the French run parallel in having the Communists as a momentary common enemy for the American troops would protect the French economic interests in the highlands as the Viet Cong were pushed back. The French would no longer have to pay taxes to the Viet Cong. And some of the French who have fled the insecure highlands would be able to return to manage their plantations.

The ostrich, the largest bird now alive, weighing as much as 250 pounds, has an enormous appetite to keep pace with its huge size. An ostrich will eat snakes, lizards, small mammals and birds, insects, many kinds of plants and pebbles as large as hens' eggs.

Grin And Bear It

No Peace Feelers

By Lewis Gulick

North Viet Remains Quiet

WASHINGTON

Whatever its other results, Americ a's large-scale entry into the Viet Nam war has failed so far to produce a meaningful peace feeler from North Viet Nam.

This report comes from U.S. diplomats, who for six months have searched for any promising Red response to President Johnson''s April 7 offer of "unconditional discussions" with t h e governments concerned.

One reason for the introduction of U. S. combat troops in the South and air attacks on the North, Johnson said at the time, was to make "clear that the only path for reasonable men is the path of peaceful settlement."

SINCE THEN THE Veit Cong monsoon season offensive has come and gone on a much smaller scale than U.S. officials expected.

The beefed - up U.S. ground forces often gave the guerrillas a bloody nose, and American bombers struck north with regularity.

Now the same Washington sources who once predicted major rethinking by Hanoi this fall are reporting that the Reds seem as determined as ever to slug it out.

If anything, Hanoi may have toughened its line.

A few months ago, U.S. policymakers figured North Viet Nam might not be insisting on its four - point plan — which includes a withdrawal of foreign forces and acceptance of the Communist program in the South — as a precondition for talks. Now Red propagandists seem to be demanding the four points as a prerequisite.

This adds up to a gloomy outlook for a diplomatic solution any time soon. Instead, U. S. diplomats expect hard fighting ahead on the military front, and there is more talk about winning the war that way — without a peace conference.

The Viet Cong live in greater peril and hardship than their South Vietnamese government opponents.

THE WILL TO FIGHT on for a vague and distant reward is the guerrilla's strongest armor, and peace talks could eat into that.

So far the Red leaders, a military solution may continue to be more appealing than the conference table. North Viet Nam is still declaring that the "defeat of U.S. imperialism is beyond question."

And if the tide of battle goes against the Asian Communists, they have room in doctrine and experience for a tactical shift, laying low to strike again later.

Johnson voiced hope April 7 "that peace will come swiftly."

At the same time he added:

"But that is in the hands of others besides ourselves. And we must be prepared for a long continued conflict."

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

This letter is in reference to the recent escapades of different anti - American clans and groups not only in regards to civil rights or the conflict in Viet Nam but any and all democratic programs being sponsored by our government.

I couldn't call them Communists, because a Communist does have a little loyalty to his individual country. I would call them just plain traitors and very ignorant people.

This conflict in Viet Nam would have to be settled somewhere sooner or later. Would they prefer to settle it now over there or later on over here on their own doorsteps where their wives, children and parents would be in danger?

I really don't think they actually know just what they are doing.

No objections to our government's actions can rightly be called democratic. Let's uphold all our American actions everywhere.

Democrats Have A Secret

U.S. Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, addressing a recent fund-raising dinner in Cleveland, teed off on "Birchers of the left." They have a stronger hold on the Democratic party, he said, than extremists of the right have on the Republican party.

The senator knows, as a former party chairman and a practical politician, that such infiltration—even the allegation of such a thing—can hurt the party grievously at the polls in a presidential election. It hurt in 1964.

But he knows equally well that the accusation of leftist extremism and evidence of leftist influence never hurt the Democratic party in a national election. What makes the difference? Why do Republicans fall out and Democrats fall in?

Even when Franklin D. Roosevelt was accepting help from leftists in places like New York City, he was losing no votes in places where radicalism of the left was anathema. He held the Solid South. He hung on to Democratic moderates in other cities and states from coast to coast.

Through some mysto-magic of political image-making, the Democratic party is able to incorporate radicals of both extremes—from the reactionary Eastlands of the Solid South to the wild men of the disorganized North without losing middle-of-the-road voters.

Its critics and political foes have charged tirelessly that it is dominated by one or the other, but they cannot make the charge stick in the public craw the way the charge of extremism stuck there in the 1964 election when made against the Republicans.

The Democratic party has been so successful in creating an image of composite character that even Lyndon B. Johnson, a political conservative, automatically took on the party coloration of liberalism when he moved into the White House. No one questioned the transition.

Yet, when Dwight D. Eisenhower, assuredly more liberal than conservative by inclination, moved into the White House in 1953 he was catalogued by political opponents as an arch-conservative though many arch-Conservative Republicans looked upon him as an enemy inside the gates; they thought he was too liberal.

Democrats have a secret.

Until Republicans learn how to include all elements of the political spectrum, without worrying about domination by any single element, they will be at a disadvantage in national elections.

Takes Two Kinds

Yale Univerity has lobbed a rocket into the murky academic sky with a plan for letting outstanding students rate instructors.

The plan followed a dismal experience last year when a Yale instructor was passed over for promotion because he had not written enough articles and books, though his students insisted he was a topnotch teacher.

Instead of a rule of "publish or perish," the Yale rule may be transformed into publish-teach or perish.

Practically, the two aptitudes do not always coincide, though a great university needs both. There might be a solution.

The great universities might maintain two categories of faculty personnel — scholars and teachers. They would strive to find people who could be both. But when they found outstanding individuals who could do only one or the other, they would expect them to excel in their specialty.

Teachers who are not great scholars can read scholarly works and learn what the scholars are thinking, which is vastly more than can be done by scholars who are not great teachers.

Teaching is a gift bestowed on the few, scholarship a way of academic life followed by the many.

William Cooper

East Liverpool has lost another of its civic leaders in the shocking death of William B. Cooper.

Bill, with his almost boundless energy, had been a moving force behind innumerable deserving enterprises over the years. He was another of those seldom found wanting when there were tasks to be done that contributed toward a better community. He was a man of positive beliefs. If he felt a project was sound and for the over-all good, he gave it his all, generally with gratifying results.

East Liverpool is the better for Mr. Cooper having been in its midst for so many years. His many contributions to its advancement will be missed and the streets will seem the lonelier without his friendly "hello."

No objections to our government's actions can rightly be called democratic. Let's uphold all our American actions everywhere.

Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Sybil Jason, 5½ year-old baby star, proved herself a rival for Shirly Temple when she appeared in "Little Big Shot" at a theater here.

Wellsville officials urged support of a proposed tax levy of one and one - half mills to be submitted at the November election to bring liquidation of street light bills during a period of five years.

Cadet James Porter of East Liverpool was awarded a gold "R" for an academic average of 95 or more at Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Ga.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Ethel Wambaugh, a member of the East Liverpool Recreation Council, was named chairman of a committee to investigate the possibilities of operating at least two ice-skating rinks for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Digmen and children, formerly of Wellsville, moved to Smiths Ferry.

TEN YEARS AGO — High winds and drenching rains ushered in autumn's first cold spell, with temperatures dipping to 32 degrees.

Approximately 185 second - and third - graders in Wellsville schools received their second polio vaccine innoculations administered by Dr. Gustave Peller, city health commissioner.

Driver Charged After Car Crash

SALINEVILLE — A 45-year-old Canton man was released from jail Sunday after posting $150 bond on two traffic charges filed when his car wrecked Saturday at Route 644 and W. Main St.

Police Chief Roy Keister cited L. E. Eason for driving while intoxicated and reckless operation after his car missed the curve and hit some trees and stones about 1:30 p. m.

Eason, who was later examined at City Hospital and released, is scheduled for a hearing Thursday before Mayor Stanley Fitch.

Genevieve Karaffa of Summitville, cited Saturday on E. Main St. by Chief Keister for reckless operation, is also due for a hearing Thursday before the Mayor.

$1,800 Damage Listed After Chester Mishap

Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported a 1965 westbound auto driven by Ross Jeffries, 24, of 245 W. 3rd St., East Liverpool, struck a truck parked alongside Route 30 east of Chester Sunday about 1:45 a. m.

Total damage to the two vehicles was estimated at $1,800.

Jeffries was cited for driving while intoxicated. He was uninjured. He is scheduled to appear before Squire Harry Lytton of Newell Tuesday afternoon.

Midland Legion Post Sets Halloween Party

Midland American Legion Post 533 will sponsor a Halloween party for children at the post home on Beaver Ave. Friday at 6:30 p. m., Commander Leon Anderson announced.

The monthly post meeting will be held Thursday at 8 p.m.

On the agenda will be plans for participation of the color guard and post members in the Veterans Day Parade at Ambridge Nov. 11. Anderson will preside.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has urged Catholics around the world to pray for missionaries of their church.

The pontiff spoke to 30,000 gathered in St. Peter's Square to receive his traditional Sunday blessing.

"Missions are at the center of our thoughts today, Missionary Day," the pontiff said.

He described prayers for missionaries as "the duty of all to favor the spread of the kingdom of God."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Tim Considine and actress Charlotte Stewart, who played sweethearts on the "My Three Sons" television series, were married Saturday night at Bel Air Presbyterian church.

Considine and his bride left for New York on a two-week honeymoon.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I have solved the problem of paying my bills on time — especially those for which we receive no "payment due" notices such as car payments, insurance, real estate taxes, etc.

Using a red pencil, I circle the date when each bill will become due, write the amount due, and what it's for, in the blocks on my calendar. . . way ahead of time.

I check this off with a black pencil after the payment has been made.

My system not only insures prompt payment of all our bills, but allows me to plan ahead on our budget each month.

Most regular monthly payments can be marked months ahead of time through the whole calendar.

Sure saves lots of worry.

DEAR HELOISE: When cooking noodles for a chicken or tuna casserole, I cook them in chicken broth — just enough so the broth is completely absorbed.

If you don't have homemade broth, canned chicken broth makes a good substitute, and the finished dish is more tasty than when noodles are cooked in plain water.

BETH HANSEN.

And, did you know that just plain, ol' buttered noodles are delicious when you add a couple of beef or chicken bouillon cubes to the water in which you cook them? But be sure to cut down on the salt in the water!

Letter Of Laughter

DEAR HELOISE: The letter about making a tape recording of a child's tantrum sounds like a good idea.

Avoiding Trouble

DEAR HELOISE: I always had the habit of taking clothes from the dryer and placing them in a bushel basket until I could talk myself into ironing them. By the time I would get around to it, they would be quite wrinkled.

If ironing is the trouble spot of your day, do this:

As soon as your dryer turns off, take each piece out immediately and hang it on a hanger. You will be surprised how smooth they will be, coming right out of the dryer, and even more wrinkles fall out as they hang.

Furthermore, you don't have to hunt through a basket of wrinkled clothes for a particular piece.

Then, when you have spare time, the ironing goes much faster since they are practically wrinkle-free by that time.

MRS. PETER W. HELMER.

DEAR HELOISE: I would like to pass on the fact that if you wash your nylon stockings while wearing a pair of soiled white cotton gloves, you don't snag the stockings, and you also get the gloves clean at the same time!

DEAR HELOISE: After mixing dye in a measuring cup, I placed an old, but clean "footlet" on the top of the cup, and this was perfect for straining the dye into the water in the washer. The elastic hugged the cup.

There! I finally wrote Heloise.

2 Autos Hit By Engine At Georgia Crossings

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A Central of Georgia Railroad engine delivering freight cars to the yard Sunday struck a car at a crossing while entering the yards, dropped the freight cars, reversed, and struck another car at a crossing a block from the original accident.

One automobile driver received a cut on the hand. The other was unhurt. Both men were charged with reckless driving and failing to stop for the flashing lights at the crossings, police said.

Woman Hospitalized

Mishaps Injure 20 From District

A Chester area woman injured in a lawn mower accident and two children hurt in falls were admitted to City Hospital Saturday. Seventeen other persons injured in minor mishaps were treated at the hospital over the weekend.

Mrs. Esther Evelsizer, wife of Carl Evelsizer of Chester R. D. 1, was in "fair" condition today with a severe laceration of the left thigh suffered when a lawn mower she was riding upset.

William Joseph Freer, son of Robert Freer, 118 Ravine St., was in "fair" condition with a fractured right hip suffered in a fall.

Mary Katherin Haught, daughter of William Haught of the Westfield Rd., also was in "fair" condition with a contusion of the forehead suffered when she fell against the edge of a door at home. She was treated Saturday evening and admitted Sunday afternoon.

Ten were treated Sunday. Larry Bishop, 1211 Lisbon St., cut his lip on a drinking glass at home.

Patti Johnson, daughter of William Johnson, 824 Avondale St., stepped on a carpet tack.

Mrs. Joan Fielder, 1224 Erie St., cut her left middle finger on a glass jar.

Kristina Lynn Means, daughter of James Means of Oakmont, cut her chin when she fell against the baseboard at home.

SEVEN WERE treated Saturday. Pamela Mikeals, daughter of Mrs. Betty Mikeals of the Calcutta Rd., cut her right index finger when she fell while playing.

Thomas Lawrence son of Thomas Lawrence, 1279 Sunnyside Ave., suffered contusions of the face when he fell while running.

In a fall in the basement of her home, Christina Vojnovich, daughter of Michael Vojnovich of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1, suffered contusions of the head.

John Butcher, 519 College St., suffered contusions of the left ankle while working for the W. T. Salvage Co. of Aliquippa, Pa.

Allen Wilson, son of Gerrold Wilson, 254 Louisiana Ave., Chester, cut his chin when he fell on the porch at home.

Mrs. Beverly Balch of the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. was treated for burns of the left hand suffered when she spilled hot coffee on herself.

Richard Ference, son of Theodore Ference, 360 Haywood Ave., was hit in the left eye with a toy.

Crestline Fire Levels Inn And Nearby Home

CRESTLINE, Ohio (AP)—Fire destroyed the City Inn Restaurant and an adjacent home here Sunday. There was no estimate of the amount of damage.

At the height of the fire the walls of the restaurant collapsed onto an adjacent house. Mrs. Christine Baker, about 60, who lived next to the restaurant, was taken to a hospital suffering from an apparent heart attack.

Cigarette Blamed After Car Blaze

Sparks from a cigarette were blamed for destroying the rear seat of an auto owned by Betty Bishop, 255 Drain St., Saturday night.

Firemen were called to Drain St. at 9:55 p. m. to quell the blaze.

A short circuit was blamed for a fire in a switch box at the home of Edward Six, 407½ W. 5th St., at 9:14 a. m. yesterday.

Firemen said Six pulled the switch and then put water on the wires. The Ohio Power Co. and an electrician were called to check the service line from the street to the home and inside the house.

Singapore Chief Gets Warning About Trade

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia warned Singapore Premier Lee Kuan Yew today agains resuming barter trade with Indonesia without the Malaysian government's approval.

Prime Minister Abdul Rahman's Cabinet held an emergency meeting after press reports that Singapore proposed to reestablish barter trade with Indonesia using an island off Singapore as a trading post.

Trading between Indonesia and Malaysia — which then included Singapore — was broken off as part of Indonesian President Sukarno's campaign to crush Malaysia.

The agreement separating Singapore from Malaysia binds both governments to avoid international commitments that might endanger the other. Rahman has hinted he is prepared to use force if necessary to see that the pledge is kept.

2 Suffer Injury In Auto Collision

A city woman and her daughter were hospitalized with injuries suffered in an auto accident Saturday at 11:50 p. m. on Main St. near 9th St., Wellsville.

Mrs. Maxine Deshler, 57, of 145 College St. and her daughter, Miss Barbara Deshler, 33, of the same address both were in "fair" condition today at City Hospital.

Wellsville police said the head-on collision involved cars operated by Mrs. Deshler and Jack Earl Robinson of Stratton.

Robinson was arrested for reckless operation. Both cars were heavily damaged. Mrs. Deshler had a small laceration inside her lower lip and complained of chest and obdominal pains. Miss Deshler had possible injuries of the chest and right pelvic area.

JEWEL TRENDS

With the advent of Fall and subsequent new clothes and changes in fashion, now is the time to give some thought to the right kind of jewelry to accessorize your costumes. A special report from the American Gem Society says that the trend this year is to "quietly elegant" jewelry.

Women should find the various gold textures exciting. Two new finishes for fine 14K and 18K gold are "mink" and "bark." There is still use of the Matt, brush and Florentine finishes, as well. The convertible idea in jewelry shows up in rings that convert to a pin or pendant, reversible necklaces, and earclips with detachable pendants.

More freedom of design results in stunning, very modern mood creations. A lot of jade is being used in pins and bracelets, as are other attractive colored stones such as tourmaline, rutile quartz, the new synthetic emeralds and starstones, and citrine or smokey topaz (quartz). Different colored stones are being combined in the same ring to achieve a large, domed "high fashion" look.

We are fortunate in having many new designs in our stock so now is certainly the time to come in and browse. Remember, we always welcome you in our store and are delighted to tell you about pieces that attract your eye.

German Backs Atomic Arms Pool In Europe

LONDON (AP) — Franz-Josef Strauss, former West German defense minister, says a pool of British and French nuclear arms might serve West Europe better than a multilateral or American nuclear force.

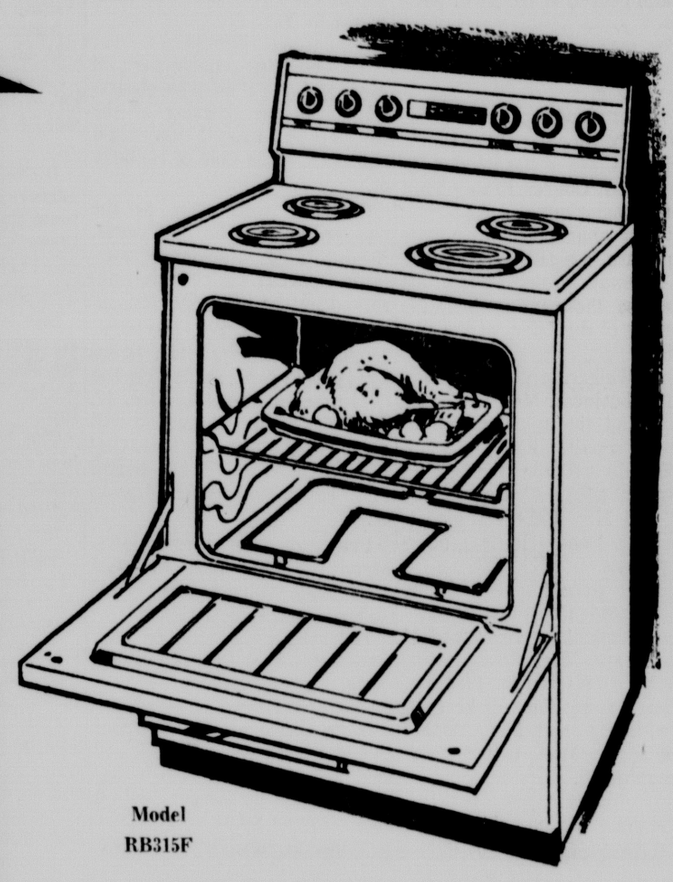

Such a plan, he said in a British Broadcasting Corp. television interview Sunday, could be a "European force of the future."

"It would be a good thing for the Atlantic alliance," said Strauss, "if there were two nuclear centers — one in the United States and one in Europe. Now we have three — a very strong one in the United States and two smaller ones in Europe."

Women should find the various gold textures exciting. Two new finishes for fine 14K and 18K gold are "mink" and "bark." There is still use of the Matt, brush and Florentine finishes, as well. The convertible idea in jewelry shows up in rings that convert to a pin or pendant, reversible necklaces, and earclips with detachable pendants.

More freedom of design results in stunning, very modern mood creations. A lot of jade is being used in pins and bracelets, as are other attractive colored stones such as tourmaline, rutile quartz, the new synthetic emeralds and starstones, and citrine or smokey topaz (quartz). Different colored stones are being combined in the same ring to achieve a large, domed "high fashion" look.

We are fortunate in having many new designs in our stock so now is certainly the time to come in and browse. Remember, we always welcome you in our store and are delighted to tell you about pieces that attract your eye.

German Backs Atomic Arms Pool In Europe

LONDON (AP) — Franz-Josef Strauss, former West German defense minister, says a pool of British and French nuclear arms might serve West Europe better than a multilateral or American nuclear force.

Such a plan, he said in a British Broadcasting Corp. television interview Sunday, could be a "European force of the future."

"It would be a good thing for the Atlantic alliance," said Strauss, "if there were two nuclear centers — one in the United States and one in Europe. Now we have three — a very strong one in the United States and two smaller ones in Europe."

Troops Move In Dominican Rebel Areas

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Troops and tanks of the Inter-American Peace Force moved into the rebel sector of Santo Domingo today to help restore peace to the tense city.

Provisional President Hector Garcia-Godoy asked for the patrols because of "the grave situation" in the city, an official peace force announcement said.

Violence stemming from continuing bad relations between rebels and the military chiefs has resulted in at least nine deaths in the past week.

It was the first time the peace force, made up mostly of U.S. and Brazilian troops, had entered the rebel zone on an operation of this kind.

Garcia-Godoy requested the patrols after unidentified gunmen assassinated Aquiles Leyva Mattos, administrator of a sugar mill and a member of the Dominican Revolutionary party.

A member of the armed forces, Capt. Mario Dujarric, was shot to death in Santiago, the country's second largest city 85 miles northwest of the capital. Miguel de Jesus Haddad, governor of Valverede province and also a Revolutionary party member, was slain in the town of Mao Saturday.

Enliven mayonnaise with lemon juice and chopped pimiento-stuffed green olives to serve with fish.

County Sends 5 To Cancer Unit Meeting

LISBON — American Cancer Society volunteers from Columbiana County participated in a two-day "Cancer Control Countdown" last weekend while attending the 20th annual meeting of the American Cancer Society of Ohio in Columbus. Five attended.

Mrs. Don Gallatin, president of the county unit, led the area contingent. She said the countdown theme emphasized the importance of step-by-step planning to move forward in cancer control.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of the National Cancer Society's distinguished service medal and citation to Dr. William J. Flynn of Youngstown, formerly of East Palestine.

A veteran of the society, Dr. Flynn was acclaimed for pioneering important medical conferences on cancer in Ohio.

Official delegates to the meeting from the county were Dr. M. K. Singer, county health commissioner; and Galen Greenisen of Salem. Other key volunteer leaders attending were Mrs. Audrey Newtz of East Liverpool, public education chairman, Mrs. Jayne Calhoun, of Lisbon, executive director of the county unit, and Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, medical advisor.

former Upper Ohio Valley Development. One of his primary organization for industrial development Council, a regional interests was the YMCA's Pine Ridge Camp, which he attended as a youthful camper and leader and served later as chairman of a rebuilding committee.

He also was a member of the Odd Fellows, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion Post 4.

During the early part of World War II, Mr. Cooper served as chairman of the local Blood Bank. He entered the Navy in 1944 as a lieutenant, junior grade, and was discharged in 1946 as a lieutenant. He served in the Bureau of Personnel.

He was a member of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church and had served as a Sunday School superintendent and teacher and a church trustee. He was chairman of the Board of Trustees at the time of his death. While a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Cooper served as its president.

He was presented the Junior Chamber's 12th annual Civic Service Ward in 1956 for outstanding service to the community.

Mr. Cooper was born in East Liverpool Feb. 2, 1910.

He attended grade schools here and East Liverpool High School, where he was graduated in 1927. He attended Mt. Union College in Alliance and later attended Ohio Northern University in Ada, where he was graduated from law school in June 1938. He was admitted to practice as an attorney the same year.

He was married June 22, 1932, to the former Miss Rowena Smila of Ada, whom he met while attending Ohio Northern University.

Mr. Cooper was a former member of the City Planning Commission. He helped with the establishment of the Health Club at the YMCA and was the organizer of the Hi-Teen Club, also at the "Y." He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

In addition to his widow and his mother, Mrs. Alice Brookes Cooper, Mr. Cooper leaves two sons, Lt. Comdr. Daniel L. Cooper, serving aboard the atomic submarine, Haddo, attached to the 6th Fleet, and Ensign W. Patrick Cooper, at the Navy Air Training Station at Pensacola, Fla.; a brother, City Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper of East Liverpool; four sisters, Mrs. Robert (Dorothy) Vodrey and Mrs. Donald (Jean) Ogilvie, both of East Liverpool, Mrs. Richard (Ruth) Boyce of Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. Donald (Anita) McGraw of Fanwood, N. J., and two grandchildren.

The Rev. John F. Stilts, pastor, will officiate at the funeral rites. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call tonight at the Martin Funeral Home and at the church from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Tuesday.

The family suggests that material tributes take the form of contributions to the Orchard Grove Church and the City Hospital Auxiliary Memorial Fund.

Man Gives Up Permit After Traffic Case

An elderly city motorist, whose car hit a Highway Department flagman on the Chester Bridge the night of Oct. 12, surrendered his driver's license voluntarily today when he appeared before Municipal Judge Samuel M Chertoff.

Willis W. Campbell, 73, of 1030 Bradshaw Ave. turned over his permit, which Judge Chertoff suspended for three years, after the jurist noted that the results of physical and eye examinations showed the man should not drive. Campbell also was ordered to pay the court costs.

The tests were ordered last week by Judge Chertoff after Campbell had entered a "no contest" plea to a charge filed by the State Highway Patrol alleging that he "failed to obey a traffic control device, to wit: a flagman..."

Campbell had testified last Monday about the mishaps in which Russell Sage Wilson, 61, of Wellsville R. D. 1 had his leg broken in two places.

The patrol said Campbell ignored a stop signal from one flagman, who jumped out of his path, drove across the point where a broken expansion joint was being repaired by the highway crew and then struck Wilson.

Luther D. Thornton, 1119 White St., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs today on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. He was cited by the patrol at 5:20 a. m. Thursday.

A hearing is scheduled Thursday for Herman S. Kinsey Jr. of Rogers R. D. 1, accused of driving at 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone at the same time.

Midland Firm Assigns Pair To New Posts

C. R. Hodgson, manager of the Midland Plant of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Division of E. W. Bliss Co., today announced the promotions of Peter Prodonovich and Jack A. Lanam and the retirement of Oswald Feicht.

Prodonovich of Fairview Rd., Industry, was promoted to roll shop and machine shop superintendent after working as inspector since 1959.

He began working as a roll lathe hand - learner in November 1939 and advanced to roll lathe finisher before being promoted to inspector in 1959.

Lanam, 233 Highland Ave Wellsville, was promoted to general foundry foreman from the position of assistant foundry foreman, which he held since 1958.

He has been with the plant since 1943, when he started as a foundry laborer. In December 1952, he was transferred to the metallurgical department as an assistant. Lanam was promoted to assistant foundry foreman July 16, 1958.

Feicht retires from the position of foundry foreman after nearly 42 years' service.

He began working as a pattern - maker Feb. 27, 1923, and was promoted to the foundry foreman April 1, 1949.

Feicht, of Beaver, is a member of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Quarter Century Club of employes with 25 or more years of service. He is also a member of the Fort McIntosh Club of Beaver.

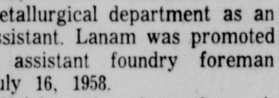

Man Escapes Injury As Car Hits Barricade

A city autoist escaped injury Sunday when his car crashed through the barricade into a near Barcley Hill intersection at Industry.

Lloyd Pries, 47, of 9th St. was traveling west on Route 68 at 5:15 p. m. when the accident occurred, according to Officer Milo Adams of the Industry Borough Police.

He reported that Pries rounded a curve when he was blinded by the sun and failed to see the barricade. The car crashed through the barricade into a hole where the pavement had been removed.

Man Gives Up Permit After Traffic Case

An elderly city motorist, whose car hit a Highway Department flagman on the Chester Bridge the night of Oct. 12, surrendered his driver's license voluntarily today when he appeared before Municipal Judge Samuel M Chertoff.

Willis W. Campbell, 73, of 1030 Bradshaw Ave. turned over his permit, which Judge Chertoff suspended for three years, after the jurist noted that the results of physical and eye examinations showed the man should not drive. Campbell also was ordered to pay the court costs.

The tests were ordered last week by Judge Chertoff after Campbell had entered a "no contest" plea to a charge filed by the State Highway Patrol alleging that he "failed to obey a traffic control device, to wit: a flagman..."

Campbell had testified last Monday about the mishaps in which Russell Sage Wilson, 61, of Wellsville R. D. 1 had his leg broken in two places.

The patrol said Campbell ignored a stop signal from one flagman, who jumped out of his path, drove across the point where a broken expansion joint was being repaired by the highway crew and then struck Wilson.

Luther D. Thornton, 1119 White St., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs today on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. He was cited by the patrol at 5:20 a. m. Thursday.

A hearing is scheduled Thursday for Herman S. Kinsey Jr. of Rogers R. D. 1, accused of driving at 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone at the same time.

Midland Firm Assigns Pair To New Posts

C. R. Hodgson, manager of the Midland Plant of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Division of E. W. Bliss Co., today announced the promotions of Peter Prodonovich and Jack A. Lanam and the retirement of Oswald Feicht.

Prodonovich of Fairview Rd., Industry, was promoted to roll shop and machine shop superintendent after working as inspector since 1959.

He began working as a roll lathe hand - learner in November 1939 and advanced to roll lathe finisher before being promoted to inspector in 1959.

Lanam, 233 Highland Ave Wellsville, was promoted to general foundry foreman from the position of assistant foundry foreman, which he held since 1958.

He has been with the plant since 1943, when he started as a foundry laborer. In December 1952, he was transferred to the metallurgical department as an assistant. Lanam was promoted to assistant foundry foreman July 16, 1958.

Feicht retires from the position of foundry foreman after nearly 42 years' service.

He began working as a pattern - maker Feb. 27, 1923, and was promoted to the foundry foreman April 1, 1949.

Feicht, of Beaver, is a member of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Quarter Century Club of employes with 25 or more years of service. He is also a member of the Fort McIntosh Club of Beaver.

Your Contribution Helps Cerebral Palsy Unit

Twenty-eight district youngsters, such as Edgar Allen John of Chester, receive vital physical therapy treatments weekly at the Columbiana County Cerebral Palsy Clinic in the Mary Patterson Memorial Building.

Mrs. Irene Tost, registered physical therapist, is shown with the boy, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William John.

The current United Fund drive aims at providing the clinic program and the national CP organization with a total of $5,294.

Cerebral palsy, which strikes someone in the nation every 53 minutes, is caused by brain damage, but the victim can be helped greatly by treatment and training.

Besides the therapy program at the clinic, seven children attend a nursery school twice a week, also sponsored by the county unit which was chartered in 1954.

Doctors Report ESP Found In 2 Sets Of Identical Twins

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An experiment by two Jefferson Medical College eye specialists has resulted in finding two sets of identical twins with what the doctors call "electronic extrasensory perception."

The results of the experiment, conducted by Dr. Thomas D. Duane, professor and chairman of ophthalmology at Jefferson, and Dr. Thomas Behrendt, chief of research in the ophthalmology department, were published in Science, the journal of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The experiment was to place one twin in each of two rooms, 20 feet apart, hook them both into a brain wave measuring device and see if a signal induced in one twin would appear simultaneously in the other.

The doctors said it worked with the first set of twins, 27-year-old resident orthopedics at Jefferson.

By inducing one twin to close his eyes through the rhythmic brain waves, the same thing happened to the other twin at the same time.

All ordinary means of communication were ruled out. The subjects did not even know what the experiment was about.

The researchers advertised in Philadelphia newspapers for other identical twins. They checked 16 sets and found one other example of the phenomenon.

The researchers said that the experiments "do not permit us to draw any conclusions regarding the incidence of this phenomenon."

But, Dr. Behrendt said, "I just don't say that anything is impossible."

According to Dr. Duane, "The interesting thing is, we aren't at all experts on ESP — we have done no work in this area. We just have this one very interesting finding, which we wanted to publish to get on the record."

Agents Arrest 6 Permit Holders In Liquor Raids

CLEVELAND (AP) — State liquor agents cited six liquor permit holders and arrested 17 persons—five of them for bootlegging in raids over the weekend.

Permit holders cited were:

The Crossroads Tavern, University Heights, for sale to a minor.

Club Beachcomber, Ashtabula, for sale to a minor and not posting signs warning against minors drinking.

Amor Delicatessen, Cleveland, for Sunday sales of beer.

Wade Park Plaza Drugs, Cleveland, for Sunday sale of beer, possession of a gambling device and permitting gambling.

Sen. Kennedy Invited To South Africa Rally

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has agreed to address a multiracial student rally in Cape Town next May, but the sponsors don't know whether the South African government will admit the New York Democrat to the country.

Nor is it known if the government will permit the meeting. Officials have threatened to suppress the student organization sponsoring the rally.

Officials in Pretoria, the administrative capital, said they knew nothing of a visit by Kennedy.

Veterans Group Seats Officers In Midland Rites

Robert P. Laughlin of Chester was installed as commander of Midland Barracks 2119 of the Veterans of World War I in ceremonies Sunday at Midland American Legion Post 481. He succeed William C. Smith of East Liverpool.

Laughlin served with the 323rd Field Artillery in France during World War I. Luke W. Cadman, past commander, was installing officer. C. H. Purton of East Liverpool was accepted as a new member.

Tentative plans were made for the barracks color guard to participate in the Veterans Day Parade at New Brighton Nov. 11.

The rummage sale, sponsored by the Veterans of World War I, opened today at the Odd Fellows Building in East End. Anyone wishing to contribute articles may take them to the Odd Fellows Building. Mrs. Stella Cadman is in charge of the sale.

Lunch and refreshments were served by H. E. Taylor, chairman of the entertainment committee. Eighteen attended. R. F. Dunn is the adjutant.

Export Seminar Speakers Listed

Two more participants were listed today for a seminar on export business which will be held Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce office, sponsored jointly by the Chamber and the Cleveland field office of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Walter Zachman, president of Seaway Forwarding Co. at Cleveland, will represent foreign freight forwarders. The Department of Commerce will be represented either by L. J. Bendler or C. J. Von Koschembahr. The other participants, named earlier, will be Nelson Hagerty of the First National Bank and Samuel Maylone of Patterson Industries. E. R. Chandler, Chamber executive manager, will be moderator.

The seminar is designed to assist area manufacturers interested in export business. It will begin at 10:30 a. m. and conclude at 12:30 p. m. with a "dutch treat" luncheon. In addition to manufacturers from the immediate area, the discussion is expected to attract others from the Salem and Columbiana areas.

"THE BIBLE"

THE STANDARD OF AUTHORITY FOR MAN'S SALVATION

"Why I Am A Member Of The Church Of Christ"

I believe very sincerely that every individual that has any religious affiliation to any degree; should be able to supply a reason with a basic foundation as to why he believes this or accepts that a religious practice. The reason this is so very important, because the destiny of their soul depends upon it.

There are hundreds of different religious organizations in existence. There are more than a dozen different "Catholic" denominations. I presume I could have joined one of them. There are more 250 different "Protestant" denominations in the United States. I could have joined one of these. But I have passed by all of these denominations and am a member of the Church of Christ. I am not a "Catholic." I am not a "Protestant." I am not a member of any denomination on earth but I am a plain, simple New Testament Christian and a member of the Lord's church. Why? No man should be anything in religion unless he has good and sufficient reason for being such. I will try to give reasons for being a member of the Church of Christ. This is not done in a spirit of apology. On the contrary, I am proud of the Lord's church and am happy to be a member of it. Peter, an apostle in the Church of Christ, said, "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear" (I Peter 3:15). I did not become a member of the Lord's church because my parents were members of it. I did it by deliberate choice. Why? My first reason will be submitted tomorrow evening.

Hunt Pressed For Inmate At County Home

LISBON — A County Home resident was reported missing from the institution after he did not show up for the 4:45 p.m. meal Sunday and while searching for him Robert Boyce, superintendent, and other searchers said they were refused access to farms adjoining the home.

The resident, Dave McFaul, 59, formerly of East Liverpool, has only one-leg, walking with crutches.

Boyce and home personnel began the search for McFaul when the patient's absence was noted. At 6 p. m., Boyce reported the man missing to the sheriff's office.

Joining in the search were volunteer firemen from Lisbon and Guilford Lake.

When the searchers reached the farms of Frank Murray and Donald Millhorn, owners of property adjoining the county home, the searchers were refused access to the land, they said.

Later, the searchers found crutch marks at County Home Rd. and Route 30.

Boyce sought a search warrant to enter the lands of the two today.

The United States ranks third in the world in size after the U.S.S.R. and China.

Carry-Over Legislation

Political Fireworks Due Congress Next January

WASHINGTON (AP) — Carry-over legislation probably will touch off some early political fireworks when Congress returns to work next January.

In the 10-month first session of the 89th Congress which shuffled to a weary end early Saturday, the Senate and House rolled out a massive tide of major legislation. But impressive as it was, President Johnson made it clear it left some things undone he wants tended to in 1966.

White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers said in reporting Johnson was pleased at what had been accomplished that "there are a good many things on the agenda we want to get at — 23 in all."

While Moyers didn't go into detail, leaders guessed that the President would be back knocking on the door for action next year on some of the programs they tucked away in the closet before shutting up shop.

Three of these involved legislation organized labor wanted but didn't get — a bill to repeal authority of states to ban the union shop, a measure to expand coverage and possibly increase the present $1.25 hourly minimum wage and a presidential request for federal standardization of unemployment compensation benefits.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he may move in January to bring up the House-passed union shop ban. Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, in a separate interview, threatened a new filibuster similar to that which blocked Senate action on the proposal in the session just closed.

Congressional leaders say they don't know yet whether Johnson will propose a new tax cut next year. But Mansfield and Dirksen agreed the prospect of any further reduction looks dim now.

Dirksen said the commitments made in the session just closed total nearly $150 billion. He and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford plan to attack what they call the inflationary increase in federal spending under a new budget Johnson may not be able to hold below $100 billion.

The Republican leaders made it clear they expect controversy to flare up over the administration of the $6.5-billion Social Security program, the $3.6-billion educational aid measure and some other programs Congress approved this year.

They forecast some infighting over what they said is overlapping authority in the Appalachia aid and economic development programs. Mansfield conceded these projects will need supervision by Congress, adding that part of the second session's job will be to round out "rough corners" in laws the first session put in the books.

In this connection, Johnson has a couple of important matters to take up with the lawmakers when they come back. In its dying hours the first session refused to supply any money for rent subsidies under the housing act or for his teachers corps proposal under the education bill.

Chester Mishap Damages 2 Cars

Chester police reported a minor car mishap over the weekend at the accident - prone intersection of 1st St. and Carolina Ave.

A 1953 sedan driven by Ward Lowell Hall, 21, of Georgetown R. D. 1 struck the rear of a 1962 auto operated by James A. Lange, 19, of 545 Florida Ave., Chester, resulting in $300 damage to each car, the report said. The mishap occurred Sunday afternoon about 4:05.

Hall was cited by Chief Harold Davis for failure to have his vehicle under control. He is due to appear before Mayor Harry Abrams Saturday at 10 a.m.

South Side Democrats Will Meet Wednesday

The Beaver County Democratic Committee will hold a public meeting for residents of the South Side area at the Shippingport recreation building Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Candidates for county offices will discuss the campaign issues. Question and answer periods will follow the talks.

Statement Read Publicly

Trinity Church Officials Oppose Sunday Business

A resolution adopted by the Session of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, which said the church officials went on record "deploring" Sunday business activity "in certain department and food stores in East Liverpool and its environs" was read to the congregation at services yesterday at 8:45 and 11 a. m.

The statement was signed by Earl D. Lones as clerk of the session. It said that the position was taken at a regular meeting of the Session in August.

Following the preamble, the statement said in part:

"We recognize that under the governmental system of the United States of America, church and state are effectively separated, and we agree to that separation. We also recognize that in a nation where religious pluralism exists, and by religious pluralism we mean the presence within the nation of many religious bodies and faiths differing in belief and practice from the Christian religion, that we cannot coerce others into the acceptance of our own religious beliefs.

"We recognize too, that the modern industrial system demands the employment of men and women on the Lord's Day.

"But we are under the conviction that the continued and unnecessary commercialism of the Lord's Day is more and more disordering an already fevered society and is robbing humanity of their remaining peace of soul and rest of body, which, according to the Lord Jesus Christ, the Sabbath was created and designed to give them.

"In this specific instance, that is the aforementioned Sunday opening of certain department and food stores, we ask the members of Trinity Church to be bound by their Christian conscience, and where no emergency or immediate necessity exists, to refrain from entering or making purchases at these establishments on the Christian Sabbath or Lord's Day."

Doctor Misses Backyard Birth

But the baby thrived without his aid.

The young one was a fawn, the first born in six years to deer kept by Dr. Charles C. Bayer on his nine-acre private preserve.

The doctor's grandson, Frank Foss, 14, came upon the fawn in some weeds a couple of days after its birth.

Deer are not the only animals on the Bayer place. He also has 75 geese, about 200 ducks, 5 sheep and a flock of bantam chickens — plus various transient animals.

Bullet Hits Window; Richochet Suspected

Police said today a copper-jacketed, large caliber bullet which broke a storm window and another window in a Vine St. home Saturday afternoon may have ricocheted from some point in West Virginia.

Mrs. June Davis, 1037 Vine St., notified police at 3:08 p. m. that the storm window and a window measuring 30-x-27 inches were broken by the shell.

Patrolman Paul Burson Jr., who investigated, said the shell apparently "ricocheted off something a long way off in West Virginia."

Marinate drained canned asparagus in olive oil and wine vinegar. Serve on salad greens with slices of tomato or red onion.

Trinity Church Officials Oppose Sunday Business

A resolution adopted by the Session of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, which said the church officials went on record "deploring" Sunday business activity "in certain department and food stores in East Liverpool and its environs" was read to the congregation at services yesterday at 8:45 and 11 a. m.

The statement was signed by Earl D. Lones as clerk of the session. It said that the position was taken at a regular meeting of the Session in August.

Following the preamble, the statement said in part:

"We recognize that under the governmental system of the United States of America, church and state are effectively separated, and we agree to that separation. We also recognize that in a nation where religious pluralism exists, and by religious pluralism we mean the presence within the nation of many religious bodies and faiths differing in belief and practice from the Christian religion, that we cannot coerce others into the acceptance of our own religious beliefs.

"We recognize too, that the modern industrial system demands the employment of men and women on the Lord's Day.

"But we are under the conviction that the continued and unnecessary commercialism of the Lord's Day is more and more disordering an already fevered society and is robbing humanity of their remaining peace of soul and rest of body, which, according to the Lord Jesus Christ, the Sabbath was created and designed to give them.

"In this specific instance, that is the aforementioned Sunday opening of certain department and food stores, we ask the members of Trinity Church to be bound by their Christian conscience, and where no emergency or immediate necessity exists, to refrain from entering or making purchases at these establishments on the Christian Sabbath or Lord's Day."

Doctor Misses Backyard Birth

But the baby thrived without his aid.

The young one was a fawn, the first born in six years to deer kept by Dr. Charles C. Bayer on his nine-acre private preserve.

The doctor's grandson, Frank Foss, 14, came upon the fawn in some weeds a couple of days after its birth.

Deer are not the only animals on the Bayer place. He also has 75 geese, about 200 ducks, 5 sheep and a flock of bantam chickens — plus various transient animals.

Bullet Hits Window; Richochet Suspected

Police said today a copper-jacketed, large caliber bullet which broke a storm window and another window in a Vine St. home Saturday afternoon may have ricocheted from some point in West Virginia.

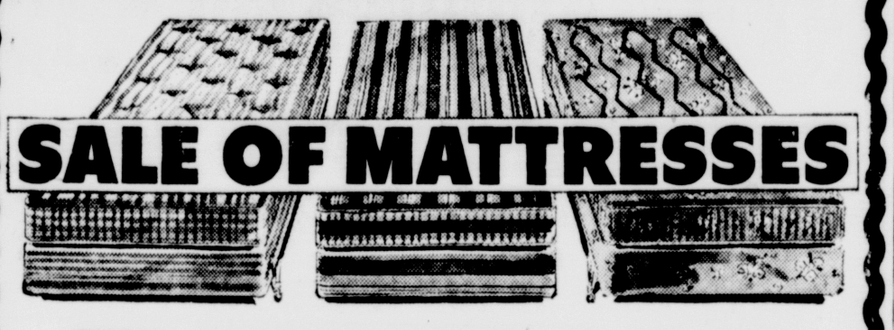

Mrs. June Davis, 1037 Vine St., notified police at 3:08 p. m. that the storm window and a window measuring 30-x-27 inches were broken by the shell.

Patrolman Paul Burson Jr., who investigated, said the shell apparently "ricocheted off something a long way off in West Virginia."

Beach Gang Hears Baptist Preach

Each Sunday he delivers a sizzling sermon to the surfboard set on this resort city's South Beach. The kids call him "Holy Joe."

Standing ankle deep in the warm sand, he speaks of "lusts of the flesh," "pitfalls of trial marriage," and "obedience to parents."

The Rev. Mr Cline keeps smiling, and preaching, and suddenly bends down and with a flourish draws a cross in the sand.

"You want power?" he shouts. "Tie yourself to that and you will have wonderful power."

A grinning kid slips an empty beer bottle into the preacher's little black satchel resting at his feet.

"That's all right, boy," the preacher says, "life is made for fun, but it's also deathly serious."

The slender preacher with faded seersucker trousers and much - laundered shirt quotes from the 121st Psalm:

"The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore."

"I think that is beautiful," said an 18-year-old blonde in a bikini.

"This guy's got guts," said a 15-year-old surfboy. "He used to come out here every Sunday and they'd throw sand and rocks at him, and push him around. He never got mad. I like to listen to this old guy. He says something."

The Rev. Mr. Cline does not pass a collection plate. He says his work is paid for by an independent Baptist missionary group. He formerly served in New York and Miami.

Why does he come to the beach on a hot Sunday?

Iowa Town Eyes Shrine For Earp

PELLA, Iowa (AP) — There's a move afoot to turn the boyhood home of frontiersman Wyatt Earp into a historical shrine.

The Pella Historical Society has taken an option on the property and plans a drive for funds to buy and restore the building. Another structure nearby would become a museum.

'Open House' Events Set In City's School System

"Open house" in the city's public school system will be held this week instead of next week, when National Education Week will be observed.

The purpose of holding open house this week is to acquaint voters with the 3.5-mill school levy and Issue I, which will be voted on at the Nov. 2 election.

At the high school, parents are invited to visit classes any time this week.

Open house at Westgate Elementary school will be held Wednesday night, but visitation is encouraged for the entire week since all persons cannot attend Wednesday. At the Pleasant Heights School, parents are invited to visit all week between the hours of 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

During open house at Garfield and Horace Mann Schools on Tuesday morning, basic fundamental classroom work will be demonstrated to the visitors. The film, "New Approach To Math," will be shown to the parents.

Lincoln has set its observance Tuesday, beginning at 6:45 and Taft at 6:30, preceding the Parent - Teacher Association meetings. Parents may visit the LaCroft School Tuesday and McKinley Wednesday evening.

At Westgate School, visitation of classes will be held all week from 8:25 a.m. to 3:01 p.m.

Parents will have the opportunity to talk to the teachers who will explain objectives and goals for their particular grade levels. The work of the pupils will be on display.

Radio Club Will Stage 'Transmitter Search'

Plans for a "transmitter hunt" were discussed by the Penova Citizens Band Radio Club at a meeting Sunday night at the clubhouse.

Members of the "React" emergency unit of the club will take part in the exercise, which will be conducted next Sunday. A prize will be awarded the first member locating the hidden transmitter.

Thirty - four members attended the meeting. Three guests, Ted and Shirley Toothman and Kate Powell, all of East Liverpool, also were present.

Army Defies Sukarno With Red Search

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian army continued its house-to-house search for Communists in Jakarta today as disagreement between President Sukarno and the military apparently deepened.

Army troops supported by tanks and armored cars sealed off a residential area and searched each of the houses for Communists, documents and arms.

At Washington, Ga., the grand dragon of the Georgia Klan, Calvin Craig, spoke at a rally after a Negro civil rights march failed to materialize in Lincolnton, scene of racial tensions 19 miles away.

Craig, who will appear as a witness later this week in a congressional hearing on the activities of the Klan, said he will attempt to stage a rally in Lincolnton next Saturday.

Traffic

one - car accident Sunday at 11:40 p. m. on Route 170 almost two miles south of East Palestine.

Thomas failed to negotiate a curve, going off the left side of the highway. The car then crossed back over and hit a tree off the right side, officers said. Thomas was cited for reckless operation.

Earl J. Miller, 36, of Steubenville also escaped injury when his 1965 tractor rig went off the right side of the highway and hit the guy wire on a utility pole Sunday at 7:25 p.m. on County Rd. 430 eight-tenths a mile east of Route 30. The utility pole was snapped off. Miller was cited for not having a registration card for the rig.

DON JAMES McPhillips, 31, of Poland was arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol after his car hit a one - lane bridge on County Rd. 431 eighth-tenths a mile west of East Palestine early Saturday morning. Heavy damage resulted to the front of his car.

A station wagon driven by Larry Bruce Earl, 18, of Salineville R. D. 3 hit a guardrail along Route 39 almost a mile west of County Rd. 418 Saturday at 7:30 a. m. Officers said he was traveling too fast for road conditions and failed to make a curve.

A car driven by Roger L. Shook, 18, of Salineville R. D. 1 and a pickup truck operated by Lawrence Pollock, 75, of Hanoverton R. D. 1 were involved in a collision Saturday at 10:50 a. m. on Route 9 just over three miles north of Route 30.

Shook pulled from a side road into the path of Pollock. Shook was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way, officers said.

At Washington, Ga., the grand dragon of the Georgia Klan, Calvin Craig, spoke at a rally after a Negro civil rights march failed to materialize in Lincolnton, scene of racial tensions 19 miles away.

Craig, who will appear as a witness later this week in a congressional hearing on the activities of the Klan, said he will attempt to stage a rally in Lincolnton next Saturday.

Traffic

one - car accident Sunday at 11:40 p. m. on Route 170 almost two miles south of East Palestine.

Thomas failed to negotiate a curve, going off the left side of the highway. The car then crossed back over and hit a tree off the right side, officers said. Thomas was cited for reckless operation.

Earl J. Miller, 36, of Steubenville also escaped injury when his 1965 tractor rig went off the right side of the highway and hit the guy wire on a utility pole Sunday at 7:25 p.m. on County Rd. 430 eight-tenths a mile east of Route 30. The utility pole was snapped off. Miller was cited for not having a registration card for the rig.

DON JAMES McPhillips, 31, of Poland was arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol after his car hit a one - lane bridge on County Rd. 431 eighth-tenths a mile west of East Palestine early Saturday morning. Heavy damage resulted to the front of his car.

A station wagon driven by Larry Bruce Earl, 18, of Salineville R. D. 3 hit a guardrail along Route 39 almost a mile west of County Rd. 418 Saturday at 7:30 a. m. Officers said he was traveling too fast for road conditions and failed to make a curve.

A car driven by Roger L. Shook, 18, of Salineville R. D. 1 and a pickup truck operated by Lawrence Pollock, 75, of Hanoverton R. D. 1 were involved in a collision Saturday at 10:50 a. m. on Route 9 just over three miles north of Route 30.

Shook pulled from a side road into the path of Pollock. Shook was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way, officers said.

Army Defies Sukarno With Red Search

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian army continued its house-to-house search for Communists in Jakarta today as disagreement between President Sukarno and the military apparently deepened.

Army troops supported by tanks and armored cars sealed off a residential area and searched each of the houses for Communists, documents and arms.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Television Is A Steal

Whenever a TV viewer gets the feeling he's seen something before, it's because somebody did it before on another show.

"Most of us writers borrow from each other," says Bud Freeman, a writer friend of mine. "It's a kind of incestuous game."

Last week on NBC's Hal Humphrey "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" series, for example, the husband Jim thinks wife Joan is expecting a baby, but she really isn't. Some writer did the same script with variations last season on ABC's "Bewitched" series.

"MAYBE IT WAS the same writer," suggests Freeman. "We often borrow from ourselves."

Just recently on a Daniel Boone show a distrustful Negro learned to trust Daniel because the latter had an Indian for a friend. I think it was the same week on Rawhide that an Indian restored his faith in the white man through the Negro who is on the cattle drive this season.

Indians, by the way, are very big in TV's comedy series this season. It's difficult to tell who borrowed from whom, although ABC's "F Troop" started out with a tribe of friendly Indians.

LAST WEEK "Agent 86" in "Get Smart" had to stave off an attempt by the Indians to take America back. Earlier this month one of the Smothers Brothers led some rich Indians on the warpath for a new hospital, and Sam Lightfoot had to get NBC's Hank to sub for him while he visited fellow tribesmen in a Wild West show.

This wave of Indian-type scripts hasn't helped my friend Freeman, who wrote a serious script about an old Western hermit (circa 1880) with a Christ-like quality. Suspicion finally leads to the shooting in the back of the mild-mannered hermit. When his body is brought into town, the Indians he had befriended follow and demand they be given his remains.

"I THOUGHT I had it sold to 'The Big Valley' series, but was told the producer doesn't like Indians," says Freeman, "especially those in movies and TV. He thinks they look too phony."

Freeman was in on a story conference at a TV studio recently where things had got bogged down.

"I've got it!" shouted one of the writers. "There was an old Spencer Tracy movie on TV the other night, and . . ." In no time their problem was solved.

"I recall catching an obscure Ingar Bergman picture about a man and wife stuck in an elevator, and not much later I saw essentially the same idea on the Dick Van Dyke show," says Freeman, who suspects that Carl Reiner, an habitue of art movies and producer of the Van Dyke series, saw the Bergman movie, too, and may have been subliminally affected.

"YOU MIGHT compare it to an equation," Freeman adds. "In other words, if there can be a moon over Miami, then why not a sun over Seattle? The sad thing is that a machine can do this, or any child."

All of this borrowing, as Freeman so delicately puts it, is turning TV into a big gray blanket at the request of producers who want to stick to the formula.

What has developed, of course, is an increasingly narrower choice of story material for the writers and the viewers. "We need a great new show on TV to borrow from," says Freeman, half seriously. "Do you realize there is hardly anything distinctive enough left on TV to parody, like the old 'Dragnet' series?"

THE VIEWERS, meanwhile, may not have analyzed why so much of TV seems the same, but there is no doubt they are tiring of it. Otherwise why are more and more of them switching to old movies?

Here again, however, the incestuousness of the game is even more apparent. Movie studios now producing TV series don't even switch the components in the equation. They recast old features into TV series like this season's "Wackiest Ship in the Army" and "Long Hot Summer."

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Officers Hold Suspect In Probe Of Shooting

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A North Madison man is being held by the Lake County Sheriff's Department after officers said he produced false identification while being questioned about a shooting.

The department said Sunday that Eugene Vacca, 22, is being held for investigation. Vacca's roommate, James DuVall, 40, was shot near the heart with a .22-caliber pistol Saturday night. DuVall, who was reported in fair condition at Lake County Memorial Hospital West in Willoughby, told deputies the shooting was accidental.

W. Va.'s Draft Quota For December Is 513

CHARLESTON (AP) — State Selective Service Director Gene Hal Williams said today West Virginia's December draft quota is 513 — the highest figure since June, 1953.

The state's December quota is part of a national draft call of 45,224 men, Williams said. The Army will take all but 5,024 of the draftees, with the smaller number going to the Marines.

Williams also said West Virginia's November quota was raised this week from 368 to 435 due to an increased request by the Army.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Parents Can Aid In Crime Reduction

According to the FBI reports, year by year, crime has been increasing in the U. S. Of those arrested last year for serious crime, 48 per cent were 17 years old and younger. These facts are of great concern to parents. They are anxious about the safety of their families. Parents worry that their own children and grandchildren might someday number among those committing crime. They wish so much to find the best ways to bring up their children to be honorable men and women and good citizens.

Dr. Garry Myers

No longer can parents with a comfortable income, comfortable housing, social and educational influence feel smug about the problem of the increase of crime. Moving to the suburbs and suburbia has not eased parents' worries. Juvenile delinquency and crime have been increasing at a faster rate in these better economic areas than in the nation in general.

—:—

SHELTON AND Eleanor Gluck of Harvard, two famous students of juvenile crime, have said: "The great common denominator of delinquency in our society — whether deprived or affluent — is . . . the breakdown of the family, as the character-builder of its members and the morale-builder of society."

Most of us have been aware of this family breakdown. But the factors involved are so complex and far-reading that nobody has come up with a solution of this problem, though all sorts of efforts by religious, educational and welfare organizations are being made to curb the problem.

Parents are the hub of the family. Of first importance is the fact that they are persons of high moral integrity, dedicated mutual loyalty, and have deep regard for each other. Living in a community with others of like qualities should be favorable for their being good parents.

Understanding their children and winning their cooperation is another powerful force. So is every community influence which encourages and exalts these family virtues.

OF COURSE, all of us parents should never cease in our interests and efforts to make our immediate neighborhood and wider community the fittest possible for promoting wholesome family ideals and family living. If we could maintain what seems to us the finest family standards and find ways to bring up our children in accordance with these standards, we could contribute immeasurably to best family life among other families and, therefore, best citizenship in their children.

The more we are looked up to in our community the greater should be our influence in these directions. If enough parents of influence could gain this respect, we might expect a decrease in crime before long.

One discouraging factor is that when the wave of excessive permissiveness struck our nation several decades ago, it was the more influential parents, as a rule, who relaxed on home discipline. Naturally they have been imitated by the less influential.

IF DELINQUENCY and crime are to be reduced the more influential parents will have to lead in stiffening up in the nursery in teaching the tots the meaning of NO, in a family atmosphere of love and understanding.

My bulletins "Love and Restraint," "How to Teach Child Meaning of No," and "How Juvenile Delinquency Can be Curbed," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Gas Leak Threatens Town For Brief Time

MOUNT CORY, Ohio (AP)—Officials gave an all-clear for this small Hancock County community early today, a few hours after a naphtha pipeline leak created several potentially explosive pockets of gas.

Buckeye Pipeline Co. officials rushed here from the firm's Lima headquarters Sunday night when residents reported a heavy odor of gas.

The leak was detected on the south edge of town and the company's safety officer found several "extremely dangerous" accumulations of gas in the community.

The leak occurred near a sewer line and the gas reportedly backed up the line and into a few homes.

Officials quickly repaired the leak and announced a short time later that the danger had passed. They explained that naphtha evaporates quickly.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Television Is A Steal

Hal Humphrey

"Most of us writers borrow from each other," says Bud Freeman, a writer friend of mine. "It's a kind of incestuous game."

Last week on NBC's "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" series, for example, the husband Jim thinks wife Joan is expecting a baby, but she really isn't. Some writer did the same script with variations last season on ABC's "Bewitched" series.

"MAYBE IT WAS the same writer," suggests Freeman. "We often borrow from ourselves."

Just recently on a Daniel Boone show a distrustful Negro learned to trust Daniel because the latter had an Indian for a friend. I think it was the same week on Rawhide that an Indian restored his faith in the white man through the Negro who is on the cattle drive this season.

Indians, by the way, are very big in TV's comedy series this season. It's difficult to tell who borrowed from whom, although ABC's "F Troop" started out with a tribe of friendly Indians.

LAST WEEK "Agent 86" in "Get Smart" had to stave off an attempt by the Indians to take America back. Earlier this month one of the Smothers Brothers led some rich Indians on the warpath for a new hospital, and Sam Lightfoot had to get NBC's Hank to sub for him while he visited fellow tribesmen in a Wild West show.

This wave of Indian-type scripts hasn't helped my friend Freeman, who wrote a serious script about an old Western hermit (circa 1880) with a Christ-like quality. Suspicion finally leads to the shooting in the back of the mild-mannered hermit. When his body is brought into town, the Indians he had befriended follow and demand they be given his remains.

"I THOUGHT I had it sold to 'The Big Valley' series, but was told the producer doesn't like Indians," says Freeman, "especially those in movies and TV. He thinks they look too phony."

Freeman was in on a story conference at a TV studio recently where things had got bogged down.

"I've got it!" shouted one of the writers. "There was an old Spencer Tracy movie on TV the other night, and . . ." In no time their problem was solved.

"I recall catching an obscure Ingar Bergman picture about a man and wife stuck in an elevator, and not much later I saw essentially the same idea on the Dick Van Dyke show," says Freeman, who suspects that Carl Reiner, an habitue of art movies and producer of the Van Dyke series, saw the Bergman movie, too, and may have been subliminally affected.

"YOU MIGHT compare it to an equation," Freeman adds. "In other words, if there can be a moon over Miami, then why not a sun over Seattle? The sad thing is that a machine can do this, or any child."

All of this borrowing, as Freeman so delicately puts it, is turning TV into a big gray blanket at the request of producers who want to stick to the formula.

What has developed, of course, is an increasingly narrower choice of story material for the writers and the viewers. "We need a great new show on TV to borrow from," says Freeman, half seriously. "Do you realize there is hardly anything distinctive enough left on TV to parody, like the old 'Dragnet' series?"

THE VIEWERS, meanwhile, may not have analyzed why so much of TV seems the same, but there is no doubt they are tiring of it. Otherwise why are more and more of them switching to old movies?

Here again, however, the incestuousness of the game is even more apparent. Movie studios now producing TV series don't even switch the components in the equation. They recast old features into TV series like this season's "Wackiest Ship in the Army" and "Long Hot Summer."

Officers Hold Suspect In Probe Of Shooting

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A North Madison man is being held by the Lake County Sheriff's Department after officers said he produced false identification while being questioned about a shooting.

The department said Sunday that Eugene Vacca, 22, is being held for investigation. Vacca's roommate, James DuVall, 40, was shot near the heart with a .22-caliber pistol Saturday night. DuVall, who was reported in fair condition at Lake County Memorial Hospital West in Willoughby, told deputies the shooting was accidental.

New Dress, One Size Too Small

"I call myself a problem eater. When all goes well I get along fine, but with any problem I eat and eat and eat! I really want to change. One time you told of an overweight who bought a red dress one size too small and then slimmed down 20 pounds and wore it. Well, I've bought the dress; now we'll see."

Ida Jean Kain

Let's analyze the situation. When trouble crops up you turn to food for comfort. Food gives you an immediate satisfaction. What you are really saying is that you get so discouraged and depressed that you think, "Oh, what's the use!" In a sense, you give up and stop trying. Then you automatically start eating. Since eating until you are surfeited does nothing to help the situation, you feel even more depressed.

—:—

SOME GOOD, hard thinking about your problem eating may help you to reason in a mature way. The whole point of being well aware of what you tend to do is so that you can be in control. In short, the automatic reaction is what you want to prevent happening.

When you recognize that the established pattern simply does not work, you realize the need to do something else. This is adult reasoning.

About the red dress: Just purchasing a dress a size too small won't necessarily do the trick. Many overweights have a whole wardrobe of dresses they cannot get into. What will help is to see yourself, in your mind's eye, wearing the dress. Your will power is influenced by, in fact, takes its direction from the mental picture you hold in your mind.

IF HAVING the dress helps you to get the right picture in your mind, wonderful. This will make your goal more real. Now, back to the problem of eating. When life is running smoothly, give some prior thought as to how you want to act when things go wrong. By giving yourself a mental set through forethought, you can help yourself enormously.

Wishful thinking, which is wanting something without effort, will not work. Creative willing can set a real force into action. It's almost as if you had turned it over to a higher authority, as if the reasoning and the forethought you put into practice in calm moments come to your rescue when needed most.

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Revised Calorie Chart. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

Bank Employe Feted By Rival Savings Firm

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A Youngstown bank employe now has a $40 savings account in a rival, next-door bank. Miss Judy Black of nearby Hubbard dialed the number of the Union National Bank's telephone time service last week, but nearly hung up when she heard a man's voice instead of the recorded announcement.

The man, George J. Hojer, vice president of Union National, informed Miss Black that she was the 40 millionth person to use the service since it was started Jan. 1, 1955. Miss Black, an employe of Dollar Savings & Trust Co., will receive the savings account at a special ceremony.

There is no limit to the number of times a U.S. senator may be re-elected.

Skindivers Find Body Of Man, Ruling Slated

MILLERSBURG, Ohio (AP) — Skin divers recovered the body of Robert Baker, 28, of nearby Killbuck, Sunday from Killbuck Creek.

The coroner will rule.

Grimes Becomes Captain In Rites At Fort Devens

Cecil E. Grimes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross E. Grimes of 2127 Sherwood Ave., has been promoted to the rank of captain in the Army.

His new bars were pinned on at the Security Agency Training Center and School in Ft. Devens, Mass., by Col. Kenneth R. Lindner, the commandant, and his wife, the former Maryann Todd of Wellsville.

Capt. Grimes, a 1954 graduate of East Liverpool High School, attended Kenyon College, Gambier, prior to joining the Army in 1958. He received his commission in May 1962.

He and his wife reside in Ft. Devens.

50 Attend Final Rites For Marie McDonald

Miss McDonald, 42, was entombed Saturday at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in nearby Glendale.

the phone of the future in the palm of your hand

Suddenly the idea of another extension phone sounds so much more exciting than ever before!

Here's a happy new telephone idea. Lift the lightweight all-in-one handset and the dial lights up. It rests comfortably in the palm of your hand—dial and all. Now . . . dial, talk, listen and re-dial, without ever replacing it on the base. Making another call? Just press the little re-call button beneath the dial that "hangs up" and gives you a new dial tone.

Be first with the newest, the pace-setting Trimline phone. Put the phone of the future in the palm of your hand. Its sleek, sculptured design adds gracious beauty to any room. Make your next extension a Trimline phone. Ask your Ohio Bell service representative or your telephone man for the whole Trimline story.

CLOSE-UP CONVENIENCE. The dial comes to you . . . and it lights up for easier use. See what you're dialing without peering or straining.

GOES ANYWHERE. Wall or desk model can go in unusual but handy places . . . beneath cabinet or counter or at the side of a desk.

TRIMLINE PHONES: Only $1.00 a month each*, in addition to normal extension or main service charges, plus one-time equipment and installation charges—your choice of six smart decorator colors included. Available in wall or desk models.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 22, a secretary with a problem that is driving me nuts.

There's a girl in town who bears a striking resemblance to me. She's a model—the kind who is on call any hour of the day or night. She will pose in various states of dress or undress if the price is right. And finally, she entertains at stag parties as a so-called exotic dancer.

Whenever anyone says, "You look awfully familiar," I get the shakes. I imagine men are nudging each other in elevators and whispering behind my back. This terrible thing is giving me a complex.

When someone says, "Haven't I seen you before?" shall I tell them about my double and explain that I am a respectable secretary with no sidelines? Help! Help— CARBON CRISIS.

Dear Crisis: Concentrate on letting people know who you are rather than who you aren't. In spite of the striking physical resemblance your manner of speech, dress and general behavior should easily distinguish you from Miss Double Exposure.

Last Respects

Dear Ann: Our neighbor died yesterday. We were not close friends but she was a pleasant woman and we were sorry.

My husband and I went over to pay our respects and this is what happened:

The woman's son pulled my husband off to the side and asked if we planned to send flowers. My husband replied yes. The son said, "We'd rather have the money instead. Mother's illness cost a lot and the funeral will be expensive, too. Do you mind giving me a check to help us out?"

My husband was dumbfounded but he took $10 out of his billfold and handed it over.

When we got home he told me about it and I blew my top. My husband asked me to write and get your opinion. He doesn't see anything so terribly wrong with it. Do you? — A. STONISHED.

Dear A.: I see plenty wrong with it. Friends should not be asked to pitch in and help defray hospital bills and funeral expenses. Your neighbor's son is a clod and I'm sorry your husband fell for his pitch.

Family Bondage

Dear Ann: Jack and I have been married 14 years. We have six wonderful children.

Jack's parents are people of means. They own a great deal of valuable real estate. The home we live in belongs to them and we live here rent free. His parents even insist on paying the taxes. Jack's three brothers and their families also live in homes owned by their parents.

Jack is a fine, intelligent man and I have great respect for his judgment. His parents feel they can run our lives, dictate what he must do in his work and they also try to take over the disciplining of our children.

Dozens of times I've wanted to tell my in-laws where to head in but I've kept quiet for my husband's sake. I would give anything if we could live our own lives. But how?—YG.T.

Dear. YG.T.: When you decide you want to lead your own lives so badly that you are willing to start paying rent, you will take the first step toward independence. Your in-laws feel justified in running your lives since they are keeping the roof over your heads. If it's my opinion you want, here it is: You'd be happier in a broom closet over a bowling alley. So move already.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addreseed envelope.

Hostesses Appointed For Democrat Dinner

Women from East Liverpool and five other area communities have been named to serve as hostesses for the annual Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner of the Columbiana County Democratic party Wednesday night at 6:30 at Beaver Local High School, when Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien will speak.

Columbiana, Becky Stacey, Karen Jones and Janice McGuckin; Salem, Sophie Donnelly, Virginia Seroka, Thelma Murphy and Lena Astry, and Leetonia, Mim Spear and Selma Weikert.

She Wasn't Excited,

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — As they neared the big entrance doors that first day, Mrs. L. M. Nelson looked down at her 6-year-old.

"Phyllis, are you excited about going to school?"

The answer was barely audible.

215-Pound Official Wants No-Cal Cocoa

TORONTO (AP) — A group of touring Nigerian cocoa farmers visited Toronto's new City Hall and found they had an avid customer in Mayor Philip Givens.

Givens admitted that chocolate is his passion.

"If I'm under stress I find that if I have a piece of chocolate I feel much better.

"Maybe you people will do the same thing as the soft-drink people — bring out a no-cal cocoa so we fat people can eat chocolate without putting on weight."

Mayor Givens weighs 215 pounds.

Tribute Given 3 At Yellow Creek Grange Session

Three with 25-year membership were recognized by the Yellow Creek Grange at a meeting Thursday night in the hall.

Ralph Falconer was presented a 25-year certificate and Mrs. Martha Reight and Charles McIntosh, who were absent, will receive similar awards.

George Patterson, master, conducted the adult Grange meeting and Beth DeLauder, master, presided over the Juvenile Grange. Plans were discussed for a Halloween party Thursday.

The program included: Group singing; piano selection, Ralph Falconer; tongue-twisters, Mrs. Marcella James; poem, "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin," Mrs. Isabel Patterson; stunt stories and riddles, Mrs. Betty Mick, lecturer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Audrey Gilmore. The next meeting will be Nov. 4.

New Officers Elected By Newspaper Women

Other officers elected Sunday were Lu Ella Kepler, of the Lorain Journal, vice president; Elinor Taylor, Wooster Daily Record, secretary, and Libby Lackman, Cincinnati Enquirer, treasurer.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 22, a secretary with a problem that is driving me nuts.

There's a girl in town who bears a striking resemblance to me. She's a model—the kind who is on call any hour of the day or night. She will pose in various states of dress or undress if the price is right. And finally, she entertains at stag parties as a so-called exotic dancer.

Whenever anyone says, "You look awfully familiar," I get the shakes. I imagine men are nudging each other in elevators and whispering behind my back. This terrible thing is giving me a complex.

When someone says, "Haven't I seen you before?" shall I tell them about my double and explain that I am a respectable secretary with no sidelines? Help! Help— CARBON CRISIS.

Dear Crisis: Concentrate on letting people know who you are rather than who you aren't. In spite of the striking physical resemblance your manner of speech, dress and general behavior should easily distinguish you from Miss Double Exposure.

Last Respects

Dear Ann: Our neighbor died yesterday. We were not close friends but she was a pleasant woman and we were sorry.

My husband and I went over to pay our respects and this is what happened:

The woman's son pulled my husband off to the side and asked if we planned to send flowers. My husband replied yes. The son said, "We'd rather have the money instead. Mother's illness cost a lot and the funeral will be expensive, too. Do you mind giving me a check to help us out?"

My husband was dumbfounded but he took $10 out of his billfold and handed it over.

When we got home he told me about it and I blew my top. My husband asked me to write and get your opinion. He doesn't see anything so terribly wrong with it. Do you? — A. STONISHED.

Dear A.: I see plenty wrong with it. Friends should not be asked to pitch in and help defray hospital bills and funeral expenses. Your neighbor's son is a clod and I'm sorry your husband fell for his pitch.

Family Bondage

Dear Ann: Jack and I have been married 14 years. We have six wonderful children.

Jack's parents are people of means. They own a great deal of valuable real estate. The home we live in belongs to them and we live here rent free. His parents even insist on paying the taxes. Jack's three brothers and their families also live in homes owned by their parents.

Jack is a fine, intelligent man and I have great respect for his judgment. His parents feel they can run our lives, dictate what he must do in his work and they also try to take over the disciplining of our children.

Dozens of times I've wanted to tell my in-laws where to head in but I've kept quiet for my husband's sake. I would give anything if we could live our own lives. But how?—YG.T.

Dear. YG.T.: When you decide you want to lead your own lives so badly that you are willing to start paying rent, you will take the first step toward independence. Your in-laws feel justified in running your lives since they are keeping the roof over your heads. If it's my opinion you want, here it is: You'd be happier in a broom closet over a bowling alley. So move already.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addreseed envelope.

Hostesses Appointed For Democrat Dinner

Women from East Liverpool and five other area communities have been named to serve as hostesses for the annual Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner of the Columbiana County Democratic party Wednesday night at 6:30 at Beaver Local High School, when Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien will speak.

Columbiana, Becky Stacey, Karen Jones and Janice McGuckin; Salem, Sophie Donnelly, Virginia Seroka, Thelma Murphy and Lena Astry, and Leetonia, Mim Spear and Selma Weikert.

She Wasn't Excited,

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — As they neared the big entrance doors that first day, Mrs. L. M. Nelson looked down at her 6-year-old.

"Phyllis, are you excited about going to school?"

The answer was barely audible.

215-Pound Official Wants No-Cal Cocoa

TORONTO (AP) — A group of touring Nigerian cocoa farmers visited Toronto's new City Hall and found they had an avid customer in Mayor Philip Givens.

Givens admitted that chocolate is his passion.

"If I'm under stress I find that if I have a piece of chocolate I feel much better.

"Maybe you people will do the same thing as the soft-drink people — bring out a no-cal cocoa so we fat people can eat chocolate without putting on weight."

Mayor Givens weighs 215 pounds.

Three with 25-year membership were recognized by the Yellow Creek Grange at a meeting Thursday night in the hall.

Ralph Falconer was presented a 25-year certificate and Mrs. Martha Reight and Charles McIntosh, who were absent, will receive similar awards.

George Patterson, master, conducted the adult Grange meeting and Beth DeLauder, master, presided over the Juvenile Grange. Plans were discussed for a Halloween party Thursday.

The program included: Group singing; piano selection, Ralph Falconer; tongue-twisters, Mrs. Marcella James; poem, "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin," Mrs. Isabel Patterson; stunt stories and riddles, Mrs. Betty Mick, lecturer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Audrey Gilmore. The next meeting will be Nov. 4.

New Officers Elected By Newspaper Women

Other officers elected Sunday were Lu Ella Kepler, of the Lorain Journal, vice president; Elinor Taylor, Wooster Daily Record, secretary, and Libby Lackman, Cincinnati Enquirer, treasurer.

Designers Show 'Home Of Future'

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

There have been a lot of pie-in-the-sky predictions in the last couple of decades about that home of the future.

But now, a group of industrial, graphic and interior designers are attempting to show where we are headed and the progress we've made in the design field in a display called "projections" at the Design and Decoration show in New York.

The show is sponsored by the American Institute of Interior Designers and the home furnishings industry.

It won't satisfy the woman who wanted everything yesterday. She may not even understand some of it. But at least we know that designers aren't standing still — they have goals.

"WE STARTED a discussion group about five or six years ago," explains Vladimir Kagan, one of the eight designers in the show. "Our objective is progress, but our offerings in this show must be two-dimensional because of the time element. Kagan has produced a few models to fit his theme "have furniture, will travel."

The yardstick of comfort must meet the requirements of our mobility, he says, so he sees two directions for furniture of the future — collapsible for mobility or disposable, short - life furniture. He prefers the collapsible, permanent utility furniture because it fulfills "man's primal desire for permanence in his shelter," he says.

Kagan's idea would be to have everything in the home multi-purpose, sort of "a table is a chair is a table" idea, rather than all performing separate functions. He'd like to see all furniture move itself — cabinets that become their own storage crates, tables that collapse, expand, raise and lower. He likes the concept of inflatable seating such as air cushions with engineered contours.

Jack Lenor Larsen, widely-known textile designer, has ideas that coincide in that he sees living spaces as mobile, disposable and sculptural with a whole new array of furnishing forms, radiant heated rugs and electromagnetic flocking techniques that will coat walls as we have been doing with paint. He sees stretchy, sleek, full - fashioned sweaters being pulled on and off chairs.

DESIGNER Michael Lax sees plastic used in cellular form, foamed - in place structures using spray - up techniques and fast - reacting forms that become self - supporting in minutes. He sees formable synthetics creating premolded rooms; flexible fibers that may be stretched into shape for furniture.

Albert Herbert, designer, whose contemporary home in New York is a showpiece, confesses that at this stage the ideas he presents are "pie-in-sky."

He envisions structures of modular framework that may be entered through glass - enclosed spiral staircases to a home that rests on stilts, requiring no maintenance, vermin free, and be quake and flood - resistant.

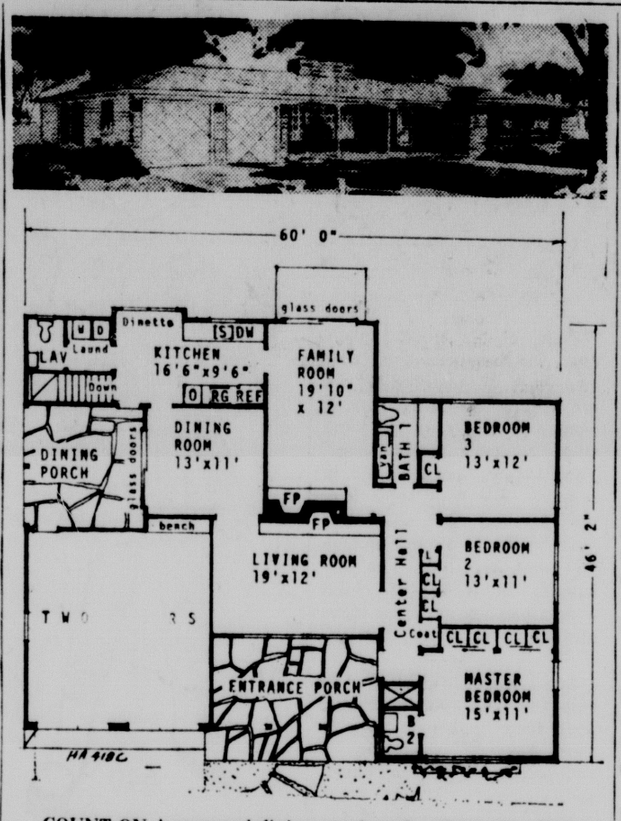

Furniture designer Darrell Landrum sees us as being able to live in any imaginative natural surroundings without sacrificing comfort.

Core materials may be stamped or molded into simple forms in far - out places — rocky seascapes, deserts, with stored heat power used for cooking and whole house sections made at such low cost that they may be replaced when needed.

Furnishings designer Paul Mayen sees lots of things made possible by reusing water . . . Samuel Lebowitz, who has been active in paperboard shelters, sees all sorts of fibers and foams being used beyond the traditional concepts of the material — folded into shapes and foam - filled with instant protective coatings to which textural coatings may be applied.

It is not imaginary — many are used in one or more forms today, such as the principle employed in the Chinese finger-pull that makes possible a one-piece woven carry - sling that binds even greater as the load increases.

COUNT ON A recessed dining porch and a distinctive dining room, in this ranch home ideal for entertaining. The family room is as big as the living room and both have unusual fireplaces back to back. Three bedrooms in a row off the center hall are provided with generous closets. Architect Lester Cohen, Room 704, 48 W. 48th St., New York, N. Y. 10036 designed Plan HA418C which has 1,555 square feet of floor space.

2 Prisoners Escape Marion County's Jail

MARION, Ohio (AP)—A statewide alert was issued today for two prisoners overpowered a guard and escaped from the Marion County Jail Sunday.

They were identified as James Kenneth Horne, 25, of Butler and David Ray Pinkerton, 22, held for parole violation.

If You Are Going To Stain, It's Best To Try Test First

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

To stain or not to stain might be the question, but to experiment before you stain is definitely the answer.

Staining changes the color of wood, but that is only one of its purposes. It also serves to enhance the beauty of wood that already is naturally pleasing to the eye — and to give some character to wood that lacks it.

Since stain affects different woods in different ways, the only certain method of getting the result you want is to try it out first on a piece of scrap wood identical to the object that is to be finished.

The proper shade is produced mainly by the time difference between the brush application and the cloth wipe - off. The longer the stain is left on, the darker the shade.

However, leaving it on too long is not recommended. It's better to apply two coats, with drying time between, to get a very dark shade. A light shade is obtained by wiping off immediately after application.

Another way to get a very light tone is to dilute the color you select with turpentine or some other thinner.

An excellent way to be certain of getting a desired result is to take a piece of scrap wood and stain one part of it a particular way. Mark that section A and then write down exactly what steps you took, especially the amount of time between the application and the wipe - off.

Next, do a second section, using a slightly different procedure, mark it B and write down the facts. On the same piece of wood, stain a third (C) section.

Wait until the next day and see what the results are. You can then determine which method has produced the shade you want. If none has, experiment further. Better to do this than to spoil your project by hasty action.

Remember, too, that this test must be repeated every time you stain a different type of wood. A stain left on birch for one minute, for example, may produce a different tone than one left on mahogany for the same length of time.

The principle of wiping and testing applies whether you are using an oil stain, a water stain or any of the various other stains now on the market, including the comparatively new process utilizing a liquid base and a colorant.

Policeman Faces Shooting Charge

PITTSBURGH — City Patrolman Robert MacBeth has been released under $2,500 on a manslaughter charge in connection with the fatal shooting of a man fleeing from a dice game in East Liberty Saturday.

Patrolman MacBeth, 36, was also suspended from the force for the slaying of Louis Hardy, 25, of Frankstown Ave. who was running away from the crap game in East Liberty vacant lot.

Patrolmen John Fitzgerald and MacBeth were summoned to the lot, and fired warning shots as about a dozen men ran from the site. Police Supt. James Slusser said officers have been told not to fire warning shots except when a known felon is leaving the scene of a crime or when the officer's own life is threatened.

Patrolman Al Steckel said Hardy stopped and appeared to reach into his pocket when the first shots were fired.

Suggestions Are Made To Correct 'Blisters'

Question: We have a house with a clapboard exterior. We painted it about a year ago. Most of it appears to be in pretty good condition, except for the outside wall in the rear, especially in the area of the bathroom.

There, the paint is blistering and peeling in several places. Since this part of the wall is shaded somewhat by an overhang, it has been suggested that the lack of sun there is causing the blistering.

However, there is another part of the house — on one side— where there is a similar overhang, yet the wall there is in good condition. Can you tell me what the trouble is and how I can correct it?

Answer: The lack of sun on a particular portion of a wall will sometimes result in mildew. Also, it can prevent the wall from drying quickly after a heavy rain, which eventually affects the finish.

But the blistering condition, taking into consideration the place where it is occurring, indicates another probable reason: moisture coming from the bathroom, going through the wall and pushing up the paint film.

The solution, before repainting, is to assist the moisture from the bathroom going through the wall.

This can be done by opening the bathroom window immediately — and it must be immediately — after taking a shower or bath or running hot water in the sink. A more certain method is to install an exhaust fan in the bathroom.

Also, there are small exterior wall vents that can be installed for the purpose of permitting the moisture to escape.

Lumber Association Urges Action On Boxcar Shortage

WASHINGTON — A dwindling supply of boxcars used for transcontinental shipment of lumber and other forest products, accompanied by the rather common practice of some railroads to hoard cars they do not own, has caused the National Lumber and Building Material Dealers Association to urge immediate passage of "corrective" legislation.

In a statement presented during hearings this month by the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee on H. R. 7165, the association's executive vice president, T. T. Sneddon, said it was highly important that legislation be enacted to alleviate the intransigent freight car problem confronting lumbermen throughout the nation.

The association went on record in support of the bill, which would amend a section of the Interstate Commerce Act, providing the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to determine "just compensation" for freight car owners and insuring an adequate national freight car supply to meet needs of commerce.

Speaking for the association's 15,000 members, who are responsible for supplying building material to builders, industries and retail consumers, Sneddon told the committee: "Many of our members' yards are wholly or substantiaally dependent on rail shipments, particularly of materials originating on the West Coast. It is important for our industry and, in turn, important to our customers, that transportation bottlenecks be held to a minimum. Otherwise, unnecessary distortions occur both in supply and price. Unless something is done to increase the total supply of properly designed, modern boxcar rolling stock, we can anticipate an even greater and costlier dislocation of our lumber distribution system."

The lumber spokesman pointed out the probable consequences to the national economy if such legislation is not forthcoming. "It takes no mental giant to conclude that over a period of time such costs will find their way into the price of the product — and again, eventually to the consumer."

Add soft butter to gingersnap cookie crumbs and press over bottom and around sides of a pie plate. Bake in a moderate oven for five to eight minutes. Cool and fill with vanilla pudding - and - pie filling. Garnish with poached apple slices and whipped cream for a different and delicious dessert.

Ohio Lists 18 Road Deaths On Weekend

Traffic	18
Fires	1
Miscellaneous	0
Total	19

By The Associated Press

Ohio's traffic death toll got off to a roaring start Friday night and Saturday but then tapered off Sunday for a typical weekend on the highways.

At least 18 persons lost their lives in weekend traffic accidents across the state. Five double-fatality crashes accounted for 10 of the deaths.

A Chillicothe woman died in a fire in her trailer home Sunday to bring the state's total weekend accidental death toll up to at least 19.

The fatalities:

Sunday

Mrs. Hazel Dunaway, about 40, in a fire in her trailer home on U. S. 23 in Chillicothe.

Claude E. Moxley, 83, rural Paineville, of injuries he received Saturday in two-car crash which took the life of his wife.

Andrew Bishop, 78, Cleveland, of injuries he received Friday night when struck by a car.

Susan Mather, 16, of Chillicothe, of injuries she received Friday night when she lost control of her car and it crashed into a tree along a rural road near Chillicothe.

Saturday

Delores Fields, 25, Columbus, and Gary Lee Swad, 20, Pataskala. Miss Fields was a passenger in a car that struck Swad and then crashed into a building in downtown Columbus.

Joseph Corrao, 16, Chagrin Falls, when his car went out of control and crashed into a utility pole near Cleveland.

Ray Williams, 81, Sycamore, in two-car collision at rural intersection in Wyandot County.

Elma Noggle, 58, Martel, when car in which she was riding was struck by a freight train at a crossing near Caledonia, Marion County.

The Rev. James T. Murray, about 46, of Atlanta, Ga., and the Rev. Edward Kelly, about 52, Waycross, Ga., Roman Catholic priests, when their car went out of control and crashed along Interstate 71 south of Mansfield.

Mrs. Claude Moxley, 71, rural Painesville, in two-car collision on U. S. 20 near Painesville.

Mrs. Alta Martin, Ironton, and Clarence Floyd, 44, rural Scottown, in two-car crash on U. S. 52 west of Chesapeake.

Mrs. William K. Monnett, 55, Dayton, when thrown from her car after it collided with another auto in southwestern Logan County.

Friday

L. B. Vickus, 42, Fremont, when his car crashed into the side of a freight train north of Tiffin.

Henry Kelley and William Brame, 22, both of Akron, when their car was struck by a pickup truck on Ohio 8 north of Canton.

Camera Club Returns From Gettysburg Trip

Twenty-one made the trip, traveling in a five-car caravan. The group photographed Battlefield sites.

Members of the club have been invited to attend a yarn style show which Mrs. Rebecca Eckert will present Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex. Prizes will be awarded for the best photographs. Albert Pittenger is president.

Extending Of Garage Can Be An Easy Matter

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

For the last three or four years there has been an increasing demand for a bit more room in the average garage.

Most modern cars are so much larger than the older models that virtually every block has several people who bought new cars and found that they could not get them all the way into the garage. As a rule, there is no trouble with the width, but the extra length is lacking.

To increase the length of a garage which was built according to standard methods of construction can be a very expensive job, but usually the difficulty can be overcome at a fraction of the cost by simply making room for the front end of the car, so that no change need be made in either the front or back wall as a complete unit.

The job starts with establishing which of the studs in the back wall must be removed. When this is settled, the studs are cut through at the desired height and pulled out of the wall. The sheathing or exterior finish of shingles or clapboard is not disturbed at this time, and consequently the studs can be removed without danger of the wall sagging.

The job will cost about 15 per cent of an alteration involving the extension of a wall and the consequent roof work. It might easily be attempted by any home owner who is handy with his hammer and saw.

Thanks to the fact that the rear of the average garage is not in plain view from either the house or the street, there can be no objection to the slight bulge in the rear wall.

Lawrenceville Group To Meet On Thursday

Trustees of the Lawrenceville Public Service District will meet Thursday night at 7:30 at the Lawrenceville fire hall to confer with representatives of the U.S. Farmers Home Administration, Cerrone & Vaughn, Inc., consulting engineers, and the Hancock County Planning Commission.

James E. Fox, a trustee, said there will be continued discussion on plans for providing public water service for the community. He said all residents of Lawrenceville should attend, as well as residents of the Johnsonville Rd. area who are interested in joining the Lawrenceville Public Service District.

Stop Green Bay's running and you stop the Packers. Right?

Wrong.

Even with their usually mighty ground attack way under par, the Packers won their first five games this season, mainly because Bart Starr was the National Football League's leading passer.

So, stop Starr and you stop the Packers. Right?

Wrong again.

Starr was stopped and then some by Dallas Sunday, but Green Bay made it six in a row, beating the Cowboys 13-3 by cashing in on two fumbles and an interception.

Starr hit on only four of 19 attempts for 42 yards. He was thrown for losses five times for 52 yards by the quick Dallas defense. Net for the day for the NFL's No. 1 passer — minus 10 yards.

Rookie Craig Morton of the Cowboys suffered similarly — 10 of 20 for 61 yards, thrown nine times for 62 yards. Net — minus one yard.

Johnny Unitas, striking a more positive note, capitalized on a second chance and led Baltimore over Los Angeles 35-20 as the Colts kept on the Packers' heels in the Western Division. They're now 5-1, with their lone loss to Green Bay.

The Washington Redskins gave the Browns an assist as they won for the first time this year, 24-20 over St. Louis, dropping the Cardinals out of a tie for the division lead. Cleveland is 5-1, St. Louis 4-2.

Pittsburgh also posted its first victory, clipping Philadelphia 20-14; Chicago kept rolling with a 38-10 romp over the Detroit Lions, and Fran Tarkenton led Minnesota on a last-half rally that carried the Vikings over San Francisco, 42-41.

Tom Brown's 27-yard return with an interception set up Green Bay's first score, a 44-yard field goal by Don Chandler. Then in the third period, Junior Coffey recovered a fumble by Mel Renfro on Dallas' 22 and Chandler broke a 3-3 tie with a 22-yard field goal.

A short time later, Willie Davis fell on a fumble by Don Perkins, giving Green Bay possession on the Cowboy seven. Jim Taylor took it in from there.

With the Rams leading the Colts 20-14 in the final quarter, Unitas connected with Jimmy Orr on what appeared to be a scoring pass, but the touchdown was nullified by a penalty. Then the Rams threw the Baltimore quarterback for a loss, but drew a penalty themselves.

Brown demoralized the Giants with 177 yards running, one scoring pass thrown and one caught. Cleveland quarterback, Frank Ryan also was on target with three touchdown passes, including two to Walt Roberts.

Sonny Jurgensen, benched for ineffectiveness two weeks ago, sparked the Redskins in the upset of the Cardinals. He passed for three touchdowns, completing 12 of 14 for 195 yards.

The Steelers, who had intercepted only one pass in losing their first five games, stole four against the Eagles — three of them picked off by Jim Bradshaw. The defensive back ran one back 82 yards for a touchdown, and stopped Philadelphia drives with the other two.

Chicago turned three fumbles and an interception into four touchdowns in the rout of the Lions. Rudy Bukich threw three scoring strikes for the Bears, who have won three straight after losing their first three, and Benny McRea went 89 yards for a Chicago touchdown with a pass interception.

STEELERS' HALFBACK Dick Hoak (42) fumbles the ball as he's hit by the Eagles Iry Cross in the first quarter of the Steeler-Eagle game Sunday at Philadelphia. The Steelers won their first game, 20-18. (UPI Telephoto)

United Rolls To 7th Win

United had little trouble rolling to its seventh straight victory of the season in a 32-0 rout at Crestview Saturday night.

Continuing unbeaten, United chalked up two first period scores as Marty Briceland and Tom Woods each went over from five yards out.

Jim Allen scored his first of two TD's on a two yard burst in the third quarter then later went 10 yards to paydirt. Woods added his second touchdown of the day on a two yard plunge in the fourth quarter.

United will go after its eighth win facing West Branch Saturday.

Conference Titles At Stake

Arkansas, Spartans And Nebraska Have Firm Hold On Top 3 Places

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With Arkansas, Michigan State and Nebraska solidly entrenched as the Big Three, college football's spotlight now shifts to conference races and possible bowl selections—with some individual heroics thrown in for good measure.

Even the leaders, each sporting a 6-0 record, are eligible for close scrutiny going into the last half of the season.

Top-ranked Arkansas and No. 3 Nebraska still face major trials in quest of the Southwest and Big Eight titles and a possible second straight meeting in the Cotton Bowl.

Michigan State, ranked No. 2, appears to have the Big Ten crown and a spot in the Rose Bowl in sight. But the Spartans face a big threat to their high ranking in Notre Dame, once again the best of the independents and challenging to take it all should the leaders falter.

Here's how the major conference races shape up after Saturday action cut down four of the nation's Top Ten teams:

Southwest—Arkansas, 3-0 in league play, went outside the conference for a 55-20 romp over North Texas State and still must face Texas A&M, Rice, SMU and Texas Tech. Tech, 3-1 and a 26-24 victor over SMU, is the biggest challenge. Texas, No. 5 in the nation, lost its second straight in a 20-17 upset by Rice and fell from contention.

Big Eight—The title should be decided Saturday when Nebraska and Missouri match 3-0 league records. Nebraska's awesome offense rolled over previously unbeaten Colorado 38-13 while Missouri, 4-1-1 overall, handled Iowa State 23-7.

Big Ten—Michigan State, 4-0, and Minnesota, 3-0, are the only unbeatens. They do not play. Michigan State, 14-10 comeback winner over No. 6 Purdue, is a clear-cut favorite in three remaining league games, but finishes against rough Notre Dame. Minnesota got by Michigan 14-13, but has a tough schedule with Ohio State, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin remaining.

Southeastern—Loss by No. 10 Georgia let Auburn take the lead at 1-0-1 despite a non-conference 3-0 loss to Southern Mississippi. Georgia is 3-1 in SEC after 28-10 loss to Kentucky. Alabama is 3-1-1 after 21-10 rout of Florida State and ninth-ranked LSU 1-1 and 5-1 over-all after 21-7 romp over South Carolina.

AAWU—Fourth-ranked Southern California has the consolation that it leads the Pacific Coast at 3-0 and has a week off following the 28-7 rout by revenge-minded Notre Dame, No. 7, and fullback Larry Conjar, who scored four touchdowns as the Irish atoned for last season's loss to the Trojans. UCLA, 3-1-1 over-all, crushed California 56-3 in its first conference start.

Missouri Valley — Record-breaking passing combination of Bill Anderson and Howard Twilley make Tulsa the class, though Louisville is also 2-0 in league play. Anderson, gunning for the completion and yardage records, passed for six touchdowns in 49-6 rout of Cincinnati. Twilley, who now holds or shares all major college career receiving records, took 14 for 226 yards.

Ivy League—Princeton and Dartmouth each 5-0 over-all and 3-0 in league. Princeton clubbed Penn 51-0 with Charlie Gogolak kicking three field goals for record of 14 for season. Dartmouth took Harvard 14-0.

Atlantic Coast—North Carolina State, 2-3, upset Maryland, 29-7 dimming the Terps', 1-2, chances for title contention. Clemson, 3-0, Duke, 2-1, and South Carolina, 2-1, are the three top teams. All three played nonconference games, Clemson edging TCU 3-0, South Carolina losing to LSU 21-7 and Duke bowing to Illinois 28-14.

Western Athletic—Wyoming, 5-1 over-all, is the team to beat but shares the lead with New Mexico, both 2-1. Wyoming whipped Brigham Young 34-6 while Arizona State upset New Mexico 27-14.

Poland Trips Leetonia In League Game

POLAND — Poland confined all of its scoring to the first half and posted a 26-0 victory over Leetonia in a Tri-County battle here Saturday.

Poland scored once in the first period when Randy Bookout went over from the five then followed with three touchdowns in the second quarter.

Mike Simington scored on a two yard run then Ed Cavanaugh went 42 yards on a pass from Denny Guappone. Bookout also was on the receiving end of a Guappone pass covering 67 yards for the final touchdown.

Poland holds a 4-1 league record and is 5-2 overall while Leetonia dropped its fifth game in seven outings.

Auto's 'Signature' May Erase Repairs

General Electric's Research and Development Center has announced a new technique called Mechanical Signature Analysis which is being used to listen to the sound of engines and other mechanical devices to pinpoint malfunctions and detect trouble before it can cause further damage. This is done without internal inspection.

Kent Says Refs Cost Them Game

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State football officials contended bitterly today that the officials cost them a 7-6 football loss to Bowling Green Saturday.

"Let's just say the referee blew the ball game for us," defensive line coach Tony Ware said.

The Golden Flashes, trailing 7-6, had a third down and goal situation from the two - yard line. Halfback Willie Asbury was stopped in a massive pileup on the thrust into the line.

Kent spotters on the roof advised coach Leo Strang via telephone that Asbury had carried to the one-foot line.

"They relayed that information because that's where the head linesman took his position," Ware said.

"We decided to have Asbury try again because we thought he could make the foot. But when we noticed the officials putting the ball back on the two, we rushed in a substitute with instructions to call time," Ware continued.

But referee Jerry Steiner of Indianapolis waived the substitute to the sidelines as the Flashes broke from the huddle and moved toward the line of scrimmage.

Strang said Steiner told him after the game:

"He is not the team captain and is not allowed to call time."

Strang said:

"I know a team captain has to call time but officials usually honor a time out signal from anyone and then tell the player to have the captain see him.

"It's the first time I've ever seen an official refuse to honor a time out signal.

"We wanted time so we could get our kicker in and try for a field goal."

Asbury rammed into the line on fourth down and was just inches short of paydirt.

"The officials missed that one too," Ware insisted. "We've run that play over a film several times and it shows the ball either on or over the goal line."

The victory gave Bowling Green first place in the Mid-Am with a 3-0 record while Kent fell to 2-1-1.

EL Runners Take 2nd In 12-Team Meet

East Liverpool's first three runners, Greg Manning seventh, Bill Loy eighth and Jerry Wood 13th, received individual awards for placing in the top 15 out of 84 runners.

Auto's 'Signature' May Erase Repairs

General Electric's Research and Development Center has announced a new technique called Mechanical Signature Analysis which is being used to listen to the sound of engines and other mechanical devices to pinpoint malfunctions and detect trouble before it can cause further damage. This is done without internal inspection.

Casper Sets Record Pace At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Bill Casper Jr., winner of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament, led his fellow professionals into Northern California today to compete in the $46,000 Almaden Open at San Jose, where he is defending champion.

Casper held the Sahara record for 72 holes, and more important, a check for $20,000, as he registered a wire-to-wire triumph Saturday with scores of 66, 66, 68 and 69 for a total of 269.

His score was six strokes under the 275 set by Dick Sikes in 1964—the tournament recod.

Three strokes back at the finish Saturday was Billy Martindale of Jacksonville, Tex., who came from well off the pace with a spectacular eight-under-par 63 and picked up his biggest pay check, $12,000.

Former PGA champion Bobby Nichols was third with a last-round 66 for 273 and $7,500.

Postmark Only Clue To Errant Customer

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Ethel Atkinson, a cafe operator, checked up $1.35 short in her cash receipts on one day's business.

A few days later she received an envelope in the mail containing one of her tickets for $1.35 and the correct amount of money taped to a piece of cardboard.

Buffalo Ups Lead In Eastern Play

By MIKE RATHET

Fred Biletnikoff, who got hooked for life under the goalpost, finally has hooked onto a pass under fire.

The rookie Oakland flanker collected his wife, Jerrlyn, in a marriage ceremony performed under the goalposts after starring in the Gator Bowl game but had collected only splinters as a pro until he made his long-awaited debut Sunday.

Getting his chance to play for the first time with Bo Roberson traded to Buffalo, Biletnikoff caught seven passes for 118 yards and was instrumental in keeping four scoring drives going as the Raiders defeated Boston 30-21 in an American Football League game.

And Biletnikoff was as happy as a kid with a $150,000 bonus—which he reportedly received for signing with Oakland.

All Biletnikoff did was catch an 18 - yard pass from Tom Flores as the Raiders drove for their first field goal, caught 12 and 21-yard passes from Dick Wood as Oakland put two more field goals on the scoreboard, then latched on to a 12-yarder that led to the Raiders' first touchdown and a 16-0 lead.

Roberson, meanwhile, caught three passes for 35 yards in his debut for the Bills, who rode Jack Kemp's aerials to a 31-13 victory over Denver that boosted their Eastern Division-leading record to 6-1.

Western Division-leading San Diego, the league's only unbeaten team, brought its record to 5-0-2 by walloping the New York Jets 34-9 Saturday night behind the running of Paul Lowe and the passing of John Hadl.

Kemp completed 14 of 22 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns —a 72-yarder to Billy Joe and an eight-yarder to Charley Ferguson — while the Broncos double teamed Roberson. Wray Carlton scored twice for Buffalo on one-yard plunges after pass interference calls. Cookie Gilchrist gained 87 yards on the ground for Denver, now 3-4.

Trailing 17-0 at halftime, the Oilers pulled ahead as Blanda passed 64 yards to Charlie Frazier, 49 to Ode Burrell and 17 and nine to Willie Frazier. Blanda also hit Bob McLeod with a nine-yarder but Spikes' 18-yard field goal proved the winner as Houston evened its record at 3-3. Kansas City is 3-3-1.

Lowe gained 110 yards in 16 carries and scored on eight and 59 yard runs while Hadl completed 16 of 28 passes for 182 yards and one touchdown in the Chargers' victory over the Jets.

Season Young But Celtics Drop To 2nd

By The Associated Press

The National Basketball Association season is barely under way, but the Boston Celtics are not in first place in the Eastern Division. This is something which didn't happen last season.

In other games Saturday night, San Francisco took over the Western Division lead by downing Baltimore 123-108 as Los Angeles was losing to New York 106-101. Cincinnati was idle.

The league was idle Sunday and does not resume action until Tuesday when Baltimore plays at Detroit and New York visits Los Angeles.

South Siders Drop Fourth Contest, 7-0

A 55-yard burst to the end zone by Larry Butterini midway through the second period was the only touchdown scored as Avonworth handed visiting South Side a 7-0 setback on a muddy gridiron Saturday afternoon.

South which now shows a 2-4-1 record attempted to tie the contest late in the second period but ran out of time as they drove to the Avonworth two but the half ended.

2 Teams Post Victories In Little Loop

Glenmoor scored an 8-0 win over Northside while the Red Devils defeated Calcutta 16-6 in the only Little League football games played Sunday.

The Dixonville - Chester game was postponed because of wet grounds.

On Wednesday, Calcutta and Northside battled to a 16-16 tie.

This week's schedule shows Dixonville meeting Chester at Chester City Park at 7:30 while a pee wee game will be played at 5:30 between Dixonville and St. Aloysius.

Sunday's scheduled shows Chester vs. Calcutta at Chester, 4 p. m.; Northside vs. St. Aloysius at East Junior High, 2 p. m.; Dixonville vs. Red Devils at East Junior High, 4 p. m. and Wellsville vs. Rams at Wellsville 2 p. m.

Canadiens, Hawks Start At Fast Pace

By The Associated Press

One weekend may be a poor yardstick but first returns from the National Hockey League indicate that the rich are going to get richer this season.

The Stanley Cup champion Montreal Canadiens and runner-up Chicago Black Hawks got off to flying starts in the NHL race by sweeping two games apiece over the weekend.

The Canadiens, opening with the same line-up that tripped Chicago in the seven-game Cup finals last spring, outscored New York 4-3 Sunday night after routing Detroit 8-1 in their home debut Saturday night. The Hawks, paced by muscleman Bobby Hull and elusive Kenny Wharram, followed up Saturday night's 4-0 victory at Toronto with a 6-2 romp over Boston.

Detroit, the regular season winner in 1964-65, rebounded with a 3-0 victory over Toronto Sunday night, extending the Maple Leafs' goal famine to 120 minutes.

Girl And Her Rabbits Have Their Revenge

But Susan had her revenge at the FFA and 4-H Junior Fair in Espanola.

She entered the same rabbit and was awarded a blue ribbon. She also entered one of the rabbits born at Taos and it took a blue ribbon.

Alston Gets Welcome

Smokey is Walter Alston, Darrtown's favorite son who was given the red carpet treatment Sunday in honor of his Los Angeles Dodgers baseball team that won the World Series.

A motorcade of 50 cars, with the Alstons in a convertible with their two grandchildren, paraded through Darrtown and then went to Oxford.

There were no speeches, but Alston thanked the hometown people "for remembering us."

Roman Brother Eyes Gold Cup Win, Top Honors

By The Associated Press

This is the week Roman Brother can take a big step towards the 1965 championship for older horses.

The rugged 4-year-old gelding from Lou Wolfson's stable is slated to start in the $100,000-added Jockey Club Gold Cup at two miles Saturday at Aqueduct. Off his decisive triumphs in the Woodward Stakes and the Manhattan Handicap, Roman Brother probably will go off the odds-on favorite.

Hill Rise and Knightly Manner, who finished one-two in the Man O'War Stakes last Saturday at Aqueduct, are among the eligibles for the Gold Cup, but both have been beaten by Roman Brother who is within hailing distance of $1 million in earnings.

Casper Sets Record Pace At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Bill Casper Jr., winner of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament, led his fellow professionals into Northern California today to compete in the $46,000 Almaden Open at San Jose, where he is defending champion.

Casper held the Sahara record for 72 holes, and more important, a check for $20,000, as he registered a wire-to-wire triumph Saturday with scores of 66, 66, 68 and 69 for a total of 269.

His score was six strokes under the 275 set by Dick Sikes in 1964—the tournament recod.

Three strokes back at the finish Saturday was Billy Martindale of Jacksonville, Tex., who came from well off the pace with a spectacular eight-under-par 63 and picked up his biggest pay check, $12,000.

Former PGA champion Bobby Nichols was third with a last-round 66 for 273 and $7,500.

Postmark Only Clue To Errant Customer

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Ethel Atkinson, a cafe operator, checked up $1.35 short in her cash receipts on one day's business.

A few days later she received an envelope in the mail containing one of her tickets for $1.35 and the correct amount of money taped to a piece of cardboard.

Buffalo Ups Lead In Eastern Play

By MIKE RATHET

Fred Biletnikoff, who got hooked for life under the goalpost, finally has hooked onto a pass under fire.

The rookie Oakland flanker collected his wife, Jerrlyn, in a marriage ceremony performed under the goalposts after starring in the Gator Bowl game but had collected only splinters as a pro until he made his long-awaited debut Sunday.

Getting his chance to play for the first time with Bo Roberson traded to Buffalo, Biletnikoff caught seven passes for 118 yards and was instrumental in keeping four scoring drives going as the Raiders defeated Boston 30-21 in an American Football League game.

And Biletnikoff was as happy as a kid with a $150,000 bonus—which he reportedly received for signing with Oakland.

All Biletnikoff did was catch an 18 - yard pass from Tom Flores as the Raiders drove for their first field goal, caught 12 and 21-yard passes from Dick Wood as Oakland put two more field goals on the scoreboard, then latched on to a 12-yarder that led to the Raiders' first touchdown and a 16-0 lead.

Roberson, meanwhile, caught three passes for 35 yards in his debut for the Bills, who rode Jack Kemp's aerials to a 31-13 victory over Denver that boosted their Eastern Division-leading record to 6-1.

Western Division-leading San Diego, the league's only unbeaten team, brought its record to 5-0-2 by walloping the New York Jets 34-9 Saturday night behind the running of Paul Lowe and the passing of John Hadl.

Kemp completed 14 of 22 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns —a 72-yarder to Billy Joe and an eight-yarder to Charley Ferguson — while the Broncos double teamed Roberson. Wray Carlton scored twice for Buffalo on one-yard plunges after pass interference calls. Cookie Gilchrist gained 87 yards on the ground for Denver, now 3-4.

Trailing 17-0 at halftime, the Oilers pulled ahead as Blanda passed 64 yards to Charlie Frazier, 49 to Ode Burrell and 17 and nine to Willie Frazier. Blanda also hit Bob McLeod with a nine-yarder but Spikes' 18-yard field goal proved the winner as Houston evened its record at 3-3. Kansas City is 3-3-1.

Lowe gained 110 yards in 16 carries and scored on eight and 59 yard runs while Hadl completed 16 of 28 passes for 182 yards and one touchdown in the Chargers' victory over the Jets.

Season Young But Celtics Drop To 2nd

By The Associated Press

The National Basketball Association season is barely under way, but the Boston Celtics are not in first place in the Eastern Division. This is something which didn't happen last season.

The Celtics dropped into second place Saturday night when St. Louis beat them 120-110 while Philadelphia took over first in the East by defeating Detroit 120-103 behind Wilt Chamberlain.

In other games Saturday night, San Francisco took over the Western Division lead by downing Baltimore 123-108 as Los Angeles was losing to New York 106-101. Cincinnati was idle.

The league was idle Sunday and does not resume action until Tuesday when Baltimore plays at Detroit and New York visits Los Angeles.

South Siders Drop Fourth Contest, 7-0

A 55-yard burst to the end zone by Larry Butterini midway through the second period was the only touchdown scored as Avonworth handed visiting South Side a 7-0 setback on a muddy gridiron Saturday afternoon.

South which now shows a 2-4-1 record attempted to tie the contest late in the second period but ran out of time as they drove to the Avonworth two but the half ended.

2 Teams Post Victories In Little Loop

Glenmoor scored an 8-0 win over Northside while the Red Devils defeated Calcutta 16-6 in the only Little League football games played Sunday.

The Dixonville - Chester game was postponed because of wet grounds.

On Wednesday, Calcutta and Northside battled to a 16-16 tie.

This week's schedule shows Dixonville meeting Chester at Chester City Park at 7:30 while a pee wee game will be played at 5:30 between Dixonville and St. Aloysius.

Sunday's scheduled shows Chester vs. Calcutta at Chester, 4 p. m.; Northside vs. St. Aloysius at East Junior High, 2 p. m.; Dixonville vs. Red Devils at East Junior High, 4 p. m. and Wellsville vs. Rams at Wellsville 2 p. m.

Canadiens, Hawks Start At Fast Pace

By The Associated Press

One weekend may be a poor yardstick but first returns from the National Hockey League indicate that the rich are going to get richer this season.

The Stanley Cup champion Montreal Canadiens and runner-up Chicago Black Hawks got off to flying starts in the NHL race by sweeping two games apiece over the weekend.

The Canadiens, opening with the same line-up that tripped Chicago in the seven-game Cup finals last spring, outscored New York 4-3 Sunday night after routing Detroit 8-1 in their home debut Saturday night. The Hawks, paced by muscleman Bobby Hull and elusive Kenny Wharram, followed up Saturday night's 4-0 victory at Toronto with a 6-2 romp over Boston.

Detroit, the regular season winner in 1964-65, rebounded with a 3-0 victory over Toronto Sunday night, extending the Maple Leafs' goal famine to 120 minutes.

Girl And Her Rabbits Have Their Revenge

While the judges were examining her rabbit entered in the livestock division, the animal became a mother. Susan received a red ribbon.

But Susan had her revenge at the FFA and 4-H Junior Fair in Espanola.

She entered the same rabbit and was awarded a blue ribbon. She also entered one of the rabbits born at Taos and it took a blue ribbon.

Alston Gets Welcome

Smokey is Walter Alston, Darrtown's favorite son who was given the red carpet treatment Sunday in honor of his Los Angeles Dodgers baseball team that won the World Series.

A motorcade of 50 cars, with the Alstons in a convertible with their two grandchlidren, paraded through Darrtown and then went to Oxford.

There were no speeches, but Alston thanked the hometown people "for remembering us."

Roman Brother Eyes Gold Cup Win, Top Honors

By The Associated Press

This is the week Roman Brother can take a big step towards the 1965 championship for older horses.

The rugged 4-year-old gelding from Lou Wolfson's stable is slated to start in the $100,000-added Jockey Club Gold Cup at two miles Saturday at Aqueduct. Off his decisive triumphs in the Woodward Stakes and the Manhattan Handicap, Roman Brother probably will go off the odds-on favorite.

Hill Rise and Knightly Manner, who finished one-two in the Man O'War Stakes last Saturday at Aqueduct, are among the eligibles for the Gold Cup, but both have been beaten by Roman Brother who is within hailing distance of $1 million in earnings.

FBI Probes 2 Bomb Threats Of Eastern Airlines

A Miami-New York flight, No 72, was diverted to Jacksonville, Fla., Sunday night after a call was received at Miami that a bomb was aboard.

A second call received at Charlotte, N.C., forced a search of a Chicago-New York flight, No. 605. The flight was searched at its regularly scheduled stop at Raleigh. No bomb was found.

Eastern Airlines officials said the calls were made by two different persons.

Ohio Counts 264,603 Students In Colleges

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)— A total of 264,603 students are enrolled in Ohio's 58 colleges and universities this year, an 11 per cent increase over last year, according to statistics announced by the Association of Ohio College Registrars.

The figures were released following the association's annual meeting at Otterbein College here last week.

For Chinese - type meatballs, add coarsely chopped drained water chestnuts and season with soy sauce rather than salt. Soy sauce varies in strength so the amount you add as seasoning will depend on the variety you use.

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County at the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, Courthouse, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio until 12:00 Noon, E.S.T., on the 26th day of October, 1965 and opened immediately thereafter for the execution and construction of the remodeling of the former Kyes Residence into the Rogers Honor Farm for the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Ohio. Proposals will be received for the Complete Construction Contract in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by Robert F. Beatty, Architect, 403 Potters Savings and Loan Building, East Liverpool, Ohio and on file in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Courthouse, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio.

One set of plans and specifications and proposal blanks, together with any further information desired, may be secured from the Office of the Architect upon deposit of a check in the amount of $20.00 made payable to the Architect. If an additional set of plans and specifications is requested by the Bidder, then said Bidder will be charged the actual reproduction costs of the additional set.

Upon receipt of a request, accompanied by a deposit as named above, the Architect will forward copies of bidding documents as named in the preceding paragraph "Shipping Charges Collect".

Deposit will be refunded upon the return of plans and specifications in good condition, and with postage or express charges prepaid, within ten (10) days after the date bids are opened. Deposit will not be refunded upon return of documents at a later date.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a Bid and Performance Bond in an amount equal to five percent (5 per cent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, supported by a Power of Attorney for the bonding agent, a Certificate from the Department of Insurance authorizing the Surety Company to do business (Surety Business) in the State of Ohio, and a current financial statement of the Surety Company. The Bid and Performance Bond shall be forthwith returned to the Bidder in case the contract is awarded to another Bidder. A Proposal shall be invalid and not considered unless a Bond with sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to five per cent (5 per cent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, is filed with such Proposal, nor unless such Proposal and Bond are filed in one sealed envelope.

The Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of
Columbiana County
Columbiana County Court House
Lisbon, Ohio

"Bid for the Complete Construction Contract for Remodeling of the former Kyes Residence into the Rogers Honor Farm"

The Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving remembrance of Lillie Mae Smith, who left us 8 years ago today, October 25, 1957.
Sad and sudden was the call of the one we all loved so dear, Her loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew it, she was gone. A bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we all loved so dear. God loved her too and thought it best, So he took her home to eternal rest. But only those who loved her best can tell, the heartache of not saying a last farewell.
Sadly missed by Dad, Daughters, Sons.

Mrs. Ruby Grafton

3 CARDS OF THANKS

FBI Probes 2 Bomb Threats Of Eastern Airlines

A Miami-New York flight, No 72, was diverted to Jacksonville, Fla., Sunday night after a call was received at Miami that a bomb was aboard.

A second call received at Charlotte, N.C., forced a search of a Chicago-New York flight, No. 605. The flight was searched at its regularly scheduled stop at Raleigh. No bomb was found.

Eastern Airlines officials said the calls were made by two different persons.

Ohio Counts 264,603 Students In Colleges

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A total of 264,603 students are enrolled in Ohio's 58 colleges and universities this year, an 11 per cent increase over last year, according to statistics announced by the Association of Ohio College Registrars.

The figures were released following the association's annual meeting at Otterbein College here last week.

For Chinese - type meatballs, add coarsely chopped drained water chestnuts and season with soy sauce rather than salt. Soy sauce varies in strength so the amount you add as seasoning will depend on the variety you use.

Rhodes Raiders Visit Industries In Chicago

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "Rhodes Raiders," a group of Ohio Development Department specialists, were in Chicago today as part of the state's campaign to induce industry to locate in Ohio.

Patterson Pepple, deputy department director, said members of the group would meet with representatives of 50 companies during the one-day visit.

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County at the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, Courthouse, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio until 12:00 Noon, E.S.T., on the 26th day of October, 1965 and opened immediately thereafter for the execution and construction of the remodeling of the former Kyes Residence into the Rogers Honor Farm for the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Ohio. Proposals will be received for the Complete Construction Contract in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by Robert F. Beatty, Architect, 403 Potters Savings and Loan Building, East Liverpool, Ohio and on file in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Courthouse, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio.

One set of plans and specifications and proposal blanks, together with any further information desired, may be secured from the Office of the Architect upon deposit of a check in the amount of $20.00 made payable to the Architect. If an additional set of plans and specifications is requested by the Bidder, then said Bidder will be charged the actual reproduction costs of the additional set.

Upon receipt of a request, accompanied by a deposit as named above, the Architect will forward copies of bidding documents as named in the preceding paragraph "Shipping Charges Collect".

Deposit will be refunded upon the return of plans and specifications in good condition, and with postage or express charges prepaid, within ten (10) days after the date bids are opened. Deposit will not be refunded upon return of documents at a later date.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a Bid and Performance Bond in an amount equal to five percent (5 per cent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, supported by a Power of Attorney for the bonding agent, a Certificate from the Department of Insurance authorizing the Surety Company to do business (Surety Business) in the State of Ohio, and a current financial statement of the Surety Company. The Bid and Performance Bond shall be forthwith returned to the Bidder in case the contract is awarded to another Bidder. A Proposal shall be invalid and not considered unless a Bond with sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to five per cent (5 per cent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, is filed with such Proposal, nor unless such Proposal and Bond are filed in one sealed envelope.

Bids are to be sealed and addressed to:

County Commissioners of
Columbiana County
Columbiana County Court House
Lisbon, Ohio

"Bid for the Complete Construction Contract for Remodeling of the former Kyes Residence into the Rogers Honor Farm"

The Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Public Utilities of the City of East Liverpool at the office of said Board, City Hall, East Liverpool, Ohio, until 12:00 Noon, Eastern Standard Time on the 3rd day of November 1965 for the repair of downspouts and Valleys of the Purification Works, according to specifications now on file in the office of said Board.

A contract will be entered into with the lowest and best bidder according to law.

Each bid must contain the full names of every person or company interested in the same and be accompanied by a Certified check on some solvent bank in the amount of $100, payable to the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio; as a guaranty that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured. Should any bid be rejected, such check will be forthwith returned to the bidder, and should any bid be accepted, such check will be returned upon the proper execution and securing of the contract.

Envelopes containing bids should be marked on outside "Water Works Repair Bid".

IN loving remembrance of Lillie Mae Smith, who left us 8 years ago today, October 25, 1957.
Sad and sudden was the call of the one we all loved so dear. Her loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew it, she was gone. A bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we all loved so dear. God loved her too and thought it best. So he took her home to eternal rest. But only those who loved her best can tell, the heartache of not saying a last farewell.
Sadly missed by Dad, Daughters, Sons.

Mrs. Ruby Grafton

3 CARDS OF THANKS

WE wish to express our thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the many kind words of sympathy at the time of the recent death of our beloved Robert Lutton. We also wish to express thanks to the nurses and aides of 3 North and a special thanks to Rev. John Stilts and the Martin Funeral Home.

RING IN THE NEW!

WE'RE RINGING OUT THE OLD!

PRICES SLASHED TO THE BONE!!

Yes, it's 1966 in Autoland. Freshly decorated showrooms all over town signal the start of a new automobile year—and a great one. It's open house and the party is underway—don't miss it!

If it's a Used Car you're interested in, it's also a big day for you. Used Cars are one model year older and ours are priced accordingly.

Better still, check our cars personally or call for our 1966 price on the Used Car of your choice. Compare our deal before you buy. A 10c phone call may save you over $200.

WE'RE RINGING OUT THE OLD!

PRICES SLASHED TO THE BONE! !

Yes, it's 1966 in Autoland. Freshly decorated showrooms all over town signal the start of a new automobile year—and a great one. It's open house and the party is underway—don't miss it!

If it's a Used Car you're interested in, it's also a big day for you. Used Cars are one model year older and ours are priced accordingly.

Better still, check our cars personally or call for our 1966 price on the Used Car of your choice. Compare our deal before you buy. A 10c phone call may save you over $200.

Junior Editors Quiz on SPARTANS

QUESTION: Whatever happened to the ancient Spartans?

ANSWER: After the peninsula of Greece was invaded by the Dorians about 1000 B. C., states began to emerge which were like small nations. Athens became famous for its thinkers and its culture, but its great rival, Sparta, went off in another direction. The Spartans had conquered neighboring peoples and made slaves of them, but the slaves revolted and it took 20 years for the Spartans to get the upper hand again. After this, the Spartans decided to throw away all luxury and bring up their sons the hard way, so they could master the slaves. Boys were taught to obey instantly, yet to be fierce fighters. To harden their feet, they went without foot coverings. They ate small amounts of coarse food, were encouraged to fight each other and to bear pain without whimpering. These boys served as soldiers until they were 30 and became Spartan citizens. Spartan citizens did no work. That was the job of the slaves or helots, which we see toiling below the Spartan youth in the picture. To train their citizens as hard, ruthless masters, would, Spartans felt, make their city the boss of the whole Greek world.

FOR YOU TO DO: Think over what you have just read, and decide for yourself how such a Spartan program would work out. Then check and see if you can find out why the Spartans' attempt to rule Greece failed.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, Oct. 25, the 298th day of 1965. There are 67 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1812, U.S. Navy Capt. Stephen Decatur captured the British frigate Macedonian in a battle some 600 miles west of the Canary Islands.

On this date

In 1854, the battle of Bala-Klava was fought. It was there the British Light Brigade made its spectacular but futile charge at a cost of 247 lives.

In 1936, Nazi Germany recognized Italy's conquest of Ethiopia.

Ten years ago—The Air Force announced it would develop a vertical - rising, man - bearing plane resembling a flying saucer.

Nuns Don Skirts, Nylons While Studying Medicine

BOSTON (AP) — Five days weekly three young women in Boston dress in outfits not common to their way of life and go to school to learn professions they once had no thought of following.

The three are Roman Catholic nuns, studying at the Tufts New England Medical Center. One will become a medical doctor, the other two doctors of dental medicine.

By special dispensation which they did not seek, they go to school in skirts and blouses, nylon stockings and low-heeled shoes.

Sister Marie Celeste of the Sisters of St. Joseph is known among patients as Dr. Mary Flanagan when she is engaged in hospital clinical work.

That was her name when she was growing up in St. Paul, Minn., and later in Belmont, Mass., before she took her vows in 1958. She is in her third year of medical school.

Sister Marie Celeste said she believes her work will involve the medical care of the 2,000 Sisters of St. Joseph nuns in the Boston area.

Sister Jean Clare, the former Elaine Eason of Buffalo, N.Y., and Sister Stephan Mary, the former Katharine Lawlor of Beverly, Mass., will become dentists after two more years of their four-year course.

Both are members of the Medical Missionaries of Mary, which never has had a dentist among its congregation of some 500.

Both expect to work in missions in Africa.

"Our congregation," one said, "doesn't teach or preach, but help. We feel you can't reach a person's soul easily if his body is afflicted."

School authorities said they requested that the three nuns wear secular clothing because, as one said, "We felt it was for their own benefit, especially when dealing with patients in clinics."

Said one of the three sisters: "Even if there is no outward sign of our true calling, all our classmates know our backgrounds.

"For example, they don't ask us to school dances."

Ex-Millionaire Dies

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Alvo Von Alvensleben, 86, who rose from farm hand to millionaire before World War I, died Friday in a nursing home. He worked as a farm hand and fisherman on the Fraser River delta in British Columbia and then built an investment firm that dealt in coal mines, timber and real estate. By the outbreak of the war he was bankrupt.

Ohio Man Hears Again After Long Years Of Silence

CLEVELAND (AP)—A man who several weeks ago could not hear has had his hearing restored after 20 years of silence.

Anton J. (Tony) Kves, 56, a printer for the Cleveland Plain Dealer, lost his hearing in his left ear after an attack of malaria. Hearing in his right ear was not much better and a hearing aid was of little help.

Kves, who caught the disease while with the 85th Infantry in Italy in World War II, went to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Cleveland a few weeks ago and tests showed the ailment could be cured by an operation.

The operation, called a stapedectomy, involves removal of bones in the inner ear which—in cases such as Kves'—have become fused by a disease called otosclerosis. After the bones are removed a wire is inserted and deafness alleviated.

Physicians say that persons who were told 10 or 15 years ago that nothing could be done to restore their hearing might be aided today by this new technique. However, they pointed out that most victims of hearing disorders caused by nerve damage may not be helped in this way.

In a letter to a friend, Kves colorfully described the three-hour operation as "a very healthy banshee who swept up and down and curved her way through all the recesses of my hapless skull . . . and never did I know what a hollow bean I possess until that witch enlightened me.

"They'll probably say it was a mere drill," he said, "but I swear it was a banshee, and not sick but all too healthy."

Lincoln School Group Sets Session Tuesday

The Lincoln Home and School Association, of which Jack E. Talbott is president, will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Open house will be held from 6:30 until the time of the meeting. Parents will have the opportunity to confer with the teachers and view displays of students' work.

The program will include a film, "Invitation to Ohio," to be screened by Stephen H. Eibling, commercial manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Refreshments will be served by the new officers and committee chairmen.

2 Sets Of Parents Ask Court For Custody Of Baby In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 14-month-old girl is too young to understand it, but two sets of parents are fighting for the right to care for her.

The blue-eyed, brown-haired child is with her blood parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Achammers, in Berea. They call her Kimberly Achammers.

She was taken Saturday from her adoptive parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Faulk of Willoughby Hills, who had cared for her since last Nov. 19 with the approval of the Cuyahoga County Probate Court, according to Mrs. Faulk. The Faulks call her Joni Faulk.

Mrs. Faulk said Sunday that she and her husband were confident that their adoption of the child would become permanent although there was a six-month probation period. She added the couple was told that either the blood parents or the adoptive parents could change their minds during the probation period.

According to record, the Achammers had filed for divorce when they gave the baby to the court for adoption, but later they changed their mind about getting the divorce and about letting the child go.

Mrs. Faulk said that last April 5 the Faulks were told the Achammers had dropped the adoption proceedings.

"At the time the court did not withdraw placement of the baby," she added.

Since the child was with the Faulks in Lake County the matter was referred from Cuyahoga County to Common Pleas Judge John M. Parks of Lake County, who has jurisdiction in juvenile cases.

Judge Parks ruled last Friday that the Achammers should have custody of the child.

Faulk said the case will be taken to the 7th District Court of Appeals in Youngstown.

Halloween Schedule Announced At Rogers

Mayor Glenn Rhodes of Rogers announced that Halloween will be observed in the village Friday and Saturday from 7 to 9 p. m.

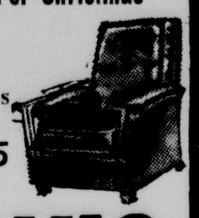

Children living outside the village will be permitted to make their house-to-house calls Friday while children living in the village will make their rounds Saturday.

Nuns Don Skirts, Nylons While Studying Medicine

BOSTON (AP) — Five days weekly three young women in Boston dress in outfits not common to their way of life and go to school to learn professions they once had no thought of following.

The three are Roman Catholic nuns, studying at the Tufts New England Medical Center. One will become a medical doctor, the other two doctors of dental medicine.

By special dispensation which they did not seek, they go to school in skirts and blouses, nylon stockings and low-heeled shoes.

Sister Marie Celeste of the Sisters of St. Joseph is known among patients as Dr. Mary Flanagan when she is engaged in hospital clinical work.

That was her name when she was growing up in St. Paul, Minn., and later in Belmont, Mass., before she took her vows in 1958. She is in her third year of medical school.

Sister Marie Celeste said she believes her work will involve the medical care of the 2,000 Sisters of St. Joseph nuns in the Boston area.

On weekends and other out-of-school days Dr. Flanagan again becomes Sister Marie Celeste in her long black habit of floor length.

Sister Jean Clare, the former Elaine Eason of Buffalo, N.Y., and Sister Stephan Mary, the former Katharine Lawlor of Beverly, Mass., will become dentists after two more years of their four-year course.

Both are members of the Medical Missionaries of Mary, which never has had a dentist among its congregation of some 500.

Both expect to work in missions in Africa.

"Our congregation," one said, "doesn't teach or preach, but help. We feel you can't reach a person's soul easily if his body is afflicted."
